LOWELL DELEGATE BACK FROM THE CIGARMAKERS' CONVENTION HELD IN CHICAGO

Samuel Gompers Big Figure at Meeting—Labor Leader Opposed to Socialism and Recognition of Russian Soviet Government—Lots of Beer and Booze

Thomas F. Garvey, delegate from Lowell, returned home last night after two weeks in Chicago attending the annual convention of the International Cigar-makers' union. He found Chicago a moist town and says news of the passing of the Volstead law hasn't been seriously received there yet. Although he does not drink himself, Mr. Garvey says "the boys" had no trouble in securing larger or red-eye in the most open manner and that many were enthusiastic as to the quality.

Gompers the Big Figure

Mr. Garvey was warm in his praise for Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, the grand old man of unionism, who as a delegate from Lowell 114 of New York city was the shining light of the convention. Mr. Gompers has attended

FEDERAL MEDIATOR TO BRING HIS INTERVENTION IN COAL DISPUTE TO A CLIMAX TONIGHT

HARRISBURG, Pa., August 28. (By the Associated Press.)—Governor Pinchot will bring his intervention in the anthracite situation to a climax tonight. He called on representatives of the mine operators and officials of the miners' union today to meet him at 6 p.m. tonight, jointly, to hear and answer a compromise proposal, which he has prepared in the endeavor to avert the suspension of operations September 1.

Peace Hints on Proposal
HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 28.—With all the tangled skein of controversy in the anthracite region in his hands, Governor Pinchot worked today to prepare a compromise proposition on which all hopes of averting a suspension of mining September 1 must rest. Miners' union officials and mine operators' representatives who have led both sides in fruitless negotiations to bring about peace waited in the city to get his promised word, but had little knowledge of what he might have to propose.

Meantime, the operators and miners themselves had direct negotiations in progress to fix the conditions under which some union members may re-

BROTHER JOANNES
COMING TO LOWELL

Brother Joannes S. M., director of St. Anne's parochial school of Lawrence, has been transferred to St. Joseph's high school, this city, where he will teach English and mathematics with the opening of the school term next week.

On his arrival at Lawrence, from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., six years ago, Brother Joannes took hold of the athletic situation at St. Anne's and developed star teams in five branches of sport, baseball, football, basketball, hockey and track.

IMPORTANT DATES TO REMEMBER

There are two dates Lowell folk should chalk down on their daily reminder pads lest they forget.

The first date to be recalled is Sept. 4, next Tuesday, when the thirty day period of national mourning for the late President Harding died on Aug. 2 and the mourning period commenced the following day.

The other date is Sept. 30, when Eastern Standard Time again will become effective within the commonwealth. Under chapter 250, Acts of the legislature of 1920, clocks were advanced one hour at 2 o'clock on the morning of the last Sunday in April. They are to be retarded at the same hour on the morning of Sunday, Sept. 30.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 28.—A man, two women and three children were drowned near Conway, S. C., early today when their automobile plunged through an open draw into the Waccamaw river. Those who perished were Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Culliver, their three children, and Mrs. Marvin Connor, all of Conway. Mr. Connor also was in the car but escaped.

GUESTS FLEE FROM FIRE
NORTH BRIDGETON, N. J., Aug. 28.—Long Lake Inn, near the shore of Long Pond here, was partially destroyed by fire at midnight. The half hundred guests from many parts of the country escaped without injury, but lost part of their personal effects. The loss was estimated at $20,000.

Among the many features to be presented by the playground children in the historical pageant in the Memorial Auditorium tomorrow afternoon and evening is the French dance to be given by the pupils of the Aiken street playground. The principals in this fantastic number, pictured above, have been carefully groomed by their instructors and have mastered the intricate steps in perfect style.

This morning in the Casino in Theradale street, all the children who are to participate in the pageant rehearsed their respective parts in the presence of the teachers, who expressed complete satisfaction with the work accomplished. A final dress rehearsal will be held in the Auditorium tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock when final details will be completed for the staging of the exhilarating feature of the season.

Each playground, as announced in Monday's Sun, will present its own individual selections. The boy characters in the above group are costumed in lavender jackets, black bloomers, white shoes and yellow head-bands, while the girls wear white jackets, yellow and white dresses, white shoes and stockings. They will present a dance of the French peasantry, for which they have been drilled by the girl supervisors of the Aiken street playground, Miss Sadie Melancon and Miss Ruth Whelton.

Trail of Murderer of Methuen Police Officer Circles Back to Lowell

The trail of the murderer of Police Officer Arthur J. Bower of Methuen, which has already diverged through three states and even into Canada, today circled back to Lowell with the coming here of Chief James W. Riley of the Methuen police force and State Officer Richard J. Griffin of Haverhill, who has been especially assigned to the case.

The two officers reached Lowell at noon and shortly after their arrival here got in touch with a Lowell doctor whom they questioned regarding his knowledge of events that happened subsequent to the murder. Although the two officers refused to state anything after this conference, it is understood that they were working on information to the effect that this man had talked with three men in a touring car at a pond near Lowell early in the morning after the murder had been committed, and that one of the men had his head temporarily bandaged as the result of very recent wounds.

State Officer Griffin stated after this conference that he was not in a position to say anything at this time, but he did admit that he and Chief Riley had some further work to do in Lowell. Whether or not he was going to have a talk with someone else, he would not say, but the presumption was left that this was his plan.

"We've been plugging hard on this case for several weeks now," said the state officer, "and I don't want to spoil anything by giving out any information we have at this time."

"Will you say that anything will develop as a result of this clue upon which you are now working?" he was asked.

"That I cannot say," he replied.

The officers are working on the theory that a bullet from either the gun of Officer Bower or Officer John MacDonald, who was with Bower, hit one of the three men in a green touring car from which the shots were fired that killed Bower, as MacDonald claims. Because of this theory they are running down the clue in reference to the meeting between the Lowell doctor and the three men whom he is supposed to have met.

It is understood also, although the authorities have not admitted it, that the Lowell doctor identified one of the three men in the car.

Conference With Banks
Yesterday afternoon Attorney Daniel J. Donahue held another conference with Barney Banks, who is being held on a formal charge of the murder in the Lawrence jail. Atty. Donahue went over certain details with his client in preparation for the hearing of Banks for the defence and for Victor Blue, appointed by the district attorney's office, will be submitted to the court Friday. Just what these reports will be is not known, but Atty. Donahue intimates that the defence of Banks will not be insanity.

U. S. CARTRIDGE SHOP CLOSED TILL TUESDAY
With the exception of the radiator and motor departments, the entire plant of the United States Cartridge company closed last night until next Tuesday morning. The shut-down is not because of a lack of business, but to acquiesce with the wishes of numerous employees who wanted a vacation. It was stated at the office of the company today that business is rushing and that the firm is having a hard time to keep up with its orders, but the officials felt that the employees were entitled to a vacation and hence the shut-down. It was deemed inadvisable to close the radiator and motor departments. The vacation will be enjoyed by between 500 and 600 employees or about 50 per cent. of the force.

partments in Other Cities is Ready to Report—Other City Hall News

Although farmers in the neighboring towns report their wells to be drying up, there is no danger of a water shortage in this city. The water supply at the Pawtucket boulevard wells is above normal according to Superintendent and this week's showers are adding considerably to the reservoir.

The reservoir pumps are kept busy right along Mr. Gardner sees no danger here of a lack of water and says there is small chance that the Cook wells on Plain street, which are only put in operation in case of emergency, will be needed.

Investigating Committee
The special committee from the city council, recently appointed to investigate methods of the assessors' departments, have practically completed studies of systems used in other cities. The committee, accompanied by the three members of the board of assessors, visited Lawrence two weeks ago and last Monday they went to Fall River and New Bedford.

In New Bedford, where the population is about 10,000 more than Lowell, the assessed valuation reaches close to $204,000,000 as against $136,000,000 for Lowell. In Fall River the valuation reaches $18,000,000 with a population about equal to New Bedford. In both cities rents are comparatively higher than in Lowell. Lawrence valuation is about the same as Lowell and the

HUNT WOMEN'S SLAYER STORY OF DISCOVERY OF ONE ARMED MAN SOUGHT

Murderer Was Wounded by

One of His Victims in Her Fight for Life

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 29.—The slayer of Mrs. Lillian McGlone and Miss Emma Vasovic, who were shot in the McGlone apartment Monday afternoon was wounded by Mrs. McGlone in her fight for life, according to the theory advanced today by Chief of Police Rugg Williams.

A blood-stained cloth lying on a chair beyond the reach of either of the women and the fact that Roy McGlone, husband of the slain woman, has identified the automatic pistol, found between the two bodies as one he left with his wife, support this conclusion, chief Williams said.

The search for Joseph Brindisi, said by Roy McGlone, husband of the slain woman, to have made three attempts to kill Mrs. McGlone, is without success. Brindisi, McGlone said, became infatuated with Mrs. McGlone, formerly a nurse, after she had nursed him through an illness early in the year. She spurned his attentions.

ASSOCIATE HALL OPENS FOR SEASON

Associate hall will open for the season Friday evening. The hall has been newly painted and a beautiful new dance floor has been laid. In addition to these features a stair case near the stage has been built thereby relieving congestion at that end of the hall and enabling persons to go to the balcony by either end of the hall. One of the finest cooling systems in any dance hall has been installed which provides the taking out of foul air and the sending of fresh air every few minutes. It is expected that many persons from out of town will be present at the opening, and dancing will be in order Friday, Saturday and Labor day evenings.

KILLS BLUE JAY WITH GOLF BALL

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Jesse Richards, president of the Hempstead Golf club, killed a blue jay today with a golf ball which he drove from the eighteenth tee.

Just as he struck the ball the bird flew from a tree. Both bird and ball fell close to the tee.

$100,000 A HOAX

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Aug. 29.—Lee Houser, laborer, who last Thursday claimed to have discovered a box containing over $100,000 in gold and bills, while working on a road near here, last night declared the story was a hoax.

Nevertheless he took exception to statements made by C. S. Wheeler, who said his young son had found the box, but that Houser had taken it from the boy's hands. Houser is reported to have said that Wheeler had no right to claim any box which he might have.

One of Houser's fellow workmen declares he saw a coin and the box. Houser now says he took a coin from his pocket and threw it on the ground, causing the report to be circulated that he had found a fortune.

Houser is said to have visited a lawyer during one of his mysterious absences from home recently, and neighbors believe he found and has hidden the treasure, fearing that the government would take it if it were found to be that said to have been buried in this vicinity by Greasy Boregott.

Two department of justice officers are here looking into the case.

FIVE ITALIAN MEMBERS OF MISSION SLAIN

ROME, August 29.—The assassination of five Italian members of the Greco-Albanian Boundary Mission has created a profound impression here, and it is announced that the government has already taken "the severe measures the extraordinary gravity of the situation warrants."

An official report of the massacre, forwarded by the secretary-general of the inter-allied military commission for the delimitation of the Greco-Albanian boundary, to the Council of Ambassadors, says that the five men killed were: General Tellini, Dr. Corti, the medical attache, Lieut. Banachis, Farneti, a chauffeur, and Craveri, an interpreter.

DEATHS

MCCARTHY—William, Catherine McCarthy, wife of William J. McCarthy, passed away at her home, 84 Shaw street, this morning, following a brief illness. Mrs. McCarthy had been a resident of Lowell for the past 33 years. She was born in Groton 62 years ago. Deceased was a faithful attendant at St. Peter's church and the news of her death was received with sincere regret by a large circle of acquaintances. A woman of genial manner and lovable womanly traits, Mrs. McCarthy had surrounded herself with a host of friends. Besides a husband, Mrs. McCarthy is survived by two sons, William H. Jr., and Walter; also a brother, William Hinds of Popperell and a sister, Mrs. Ellen Riley of Ayer. Eight nieces and four nephews also survive.

BURNARD—Phillips Bernard, a resident of this city for the past 11 years, died yesterday in the Lowell hospital, aged 61 years. He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Odile Nadeau and Mrs. Virginia Cuddeboe of this city and Mrs. Andre Fontaine of St. John, P. Q., and one brother, Joseph Bernard of Augusta, Me. The body was removed to the home of his sister, Mrs. Nadeau, 12 Worthen street, by undertakers Amodee Argentaubault & Sons.

BRUNEAU, JR.—Charles E. Brunneau, Jr., son of Charles E. and Anna (Laurie) Brunneau, died yesterday at the home of his parents, 9 Oak avenue, aged 3 months and 10 days.

MARSHALL—Francis A. Marshall died yesterday at his home in Chelmsford, aged 71 years. He leaves his wife, Susan E. Marshall; one daughter, Mrs. Thomas L. Hamilton; a grandson, all of Chelmsford and one sister, Mrs. A. G. L. Litchfield of Littleton.

SULLIVAN—Warren J. Sullivan, son of Mrs. Corinne Sullivan, died this morning at the Massachusetts General hospital, Boston, aged 29 years. The body will be taken to the home, 788 Beacon street, by undertakers Amodee Argentaubault & Sons.

COURCHESNE—Emma Courchesne, 52 years, died in this city today. She leaves a brother, Frank Courchesne of Holyoke. The body was removed to the funeral home of undertakers Amodee Argentaubault & Sons in Merrimack street.

FUNERALS

SWALLOW—Funeral services for Edward S. Swallow were held at the Evangelical church in Tyngsboro Monday afternoon. Dr. Henry H. French, pastor of the First Congregational Church at Nashua, N. H., officiated, assisted by Rev. C. E. Southard. The selections, "Face to Face" and "Lead Kindly Light" were sung by Mrs. A. C. Bailey, with Lester A. Ashburne at the organ. The bearers were George Merrill, D. L. Coburn, Forrest Merrill and Charles Nelson. Burial was in the Thompson cemetery. The arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Harlan Davis of Nashua.

LABAREE—Funeral services for James E. Labaree were held yesterday afternoon at the home of Funeral Director John A. Wainlock, 43 Middlesex street. Rev. Appleton Grantham, pastor of St. Anne's Episcopal church, officiated. Appropriate selections were sung by Mrs. Charles Young, who also represented B. F. Butler W.C.T.U., 15. The bearers were Joseph Farrell, Frank Salome, Anthony Joy and George A. McCarthy, all members of Lowell Post, 57, American Legion. Burial was in the family lot in the Edison cemetery.

MANAHAN—The funeral of Kirk Manahan took place yesterday afternoon from the home of the deceased, 217 Appleton street. The services were conducted by Rev. Appleton Grantham, pastor of St. Anne's Episcopal church, and were largely attended. The floral tributes were brought by the bearers, Walter Wright, John Wainlock, Rev. F. Stone, Esq., Max Stone, Percival Stone, Fred Bushby and Paul Goff. Burial was in the family lot in the Edison cemetery, where Dr. H. J. Saunders read the committal prayers. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

NASH—The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Nash took place this morning at 10 o'clock from her late home, 154 South street, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. F. Stone, Esq., at St. Peter's church where at 9 o'clock a funeral high mass of requiem was sung by the choir of the church. The choir sang the "Gloria" and the "Agnus Dei" being sustained by Joseph Egan and James E. Donnelly. Miss Gertrude Quere presided at the organ. There were many floral tributes. The bearers were Messrs. William Hayden, Charles McNulty, Dennis Nash, Ernest A. Gots, Daniel Lecky and John North read the committal prayers. The funeral was in charge of Undertaker Patrick's cemetery where the committal prayers were read by Rev. F. Stone. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker M. H. McDonough Sons.

BRUNEAU—The funeral of Edward Brunneau, son of Charles and Anna (Laurie) Brunneau, took place this morning from the home of his parents, 9 Oak avenue, at 10 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Joseph J. Pratt, O.M.I., pastor of St. Joseph's cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

Hope Abandoned for British Steamer

SHANGHAI, Aug. 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—Hope was abandoned today for the British steamer Mylie, five days overdue from Chin Wang Tao, with coal. The vessel was last seen on August 16, battling a typhoon. It is believed that all aboard perished, including the six foreign officers and fifty-odd Chinese in the crew. The chief officer was John R. Hudson, who gained some prominence as an Antarctic explorer and scientist.

This Is the Goose That Laid the Golden Egg

MRS. EARL HINMAN AND HER CHAMPION GOOSE

BY N.E.A. SERVICE
FREMONT, Ill., Aug. 29.—When a part in this world of toil, then lays a pair of eggs and says a "Gee!" That's different. Record as a champion, one doesn't get it. Lady Hess is the name of the husky

THEIR WORK FINALLY CROWNED WITH SUCCESS

Scene in the diplomatic room of the State Department, Washington, when ratification of the Five Power Naval Treaty, the Four Power Pacific Treaty and the supplementary agreement to the Pacific Treaty, were recently effected. Left to right: Augusto Rosso for Italy, H. G. Chilton for Great Britain, Charles E. Hughes for the United States, Andre de la Boulaye for France, Masanoo Hanihara for Japan. Ratification came shortly after the death of President Harding, at whose instance the entire work of effecting naval agreements was started.

bundle of fowl in the young woman's arms above. In 136 days, Lady Hess laid 88 eggs, not missing an alternate day. Normally, geese lay only about 35 eggs a year. And she's still hitting on all cylinders!

LOWELL WOMAN FINED UNDER TRAFFIC LAW

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—Hannah E. Moore, attractively gowned Lowell woman, paid $25 in East Cambridge court yesterday. Judge Coughlan found her guilty of refusing to stop her car on the signal of Traffic Officer Kelley.

Kelley said he had signalled her to stop, as she was going too fast along Memorial drive, Cambridge, and she three times refused to obey his signal. When he pursued and caught up with her, he said, she and another man and woman in the car abused him. He quoted the defendant as saying if she were a man he would get what was coming to him.

LONG COATS

Extreme length promises to be the dominant note in fall coats. Favor runs to the bare models.

FAVORED FABRICS
Juna, marvela, geroni and other deep piled fabrics continue to be most used for day wraps. Black leads, followed closely by shades of brown and gray.

Every Business Woman Needs This More Than a Vacation

When you don't sleep well these hot summer nights and wake up feeling full and tired, what good is a vacation going to do? The trouble with most business women is that they overtax their nerve energy; they haven't the vigor to go through a hard day's work with enough strength, energy and "zip" left over to enjoy evenings.

BUILD YOURSELF UP! Feel like enjoying yourself regardless of whether you go on a vacation. Take a grand tonic, as your doctor would advise. Countless numbers are using Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup because it is delicious to take and so strengthening, nourishing and well suited to the stomach. Helps you increase appetite, round out the girlish lines of your figure with firm, solid flesh. Improves digestion, soothes and tones the over-taxed nerves, wakes up the torpid liver, gently corrects constipation, clears up the complexion and sends healthier blood coursing through rosy cheeks.

TRY THIS TONIC! Take a delicious table-spoonful after the next few meals. Quickly notice the big difference in the way you eat, sleep, look and feel. And if you are not completely satisfied the small cost will be refunded without question by your druggist. The Dr. Thacher agencies are at Green's Drug Store, Frye & Crawford Drug Co., A. W. Davis & Co. and Noonan's drug store.—Ad.

PAPYRUS TO RACE IN U. S.

Ben Irish, shown leading Papyrus, winner of the English Derby, plans to send the horse to America to race the best three-year-olds of this country for the world title. Papyrus will be ridden by Donoghue, shown mounted here. The race is to be held at Belmont Park, N. Y., Oct. 20. The winner will receive $160,000.

PRES. COOLIDGE TO OPEN PONY EXPRESS RACE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—President Coolidge on Aug. 31 will press the button that will signal the beginning of the Pony Express race from St. Joseph, Mo., to San Francisco, the local committee in charge was informed today. The finish of the race will be at the Marinan race track here on the afternoon of Sunday, Sept. 9. Fifty miles beyond St. Joseph after changing horses five times the first rider will take it sixty miles with six changes of horses. The race will continue in that fashion, with the exception that where the grades are steep the riders will change horses each mile. On the flat stretches they will change about every ten miles.

REO TRUCK REMOVES TRUCKING PROBLEM

Lowell business and manufacturing firms who have trucking problems are gradually being rid of the bugbear of costly hauling by purchasing Reo transportation in the sizes to meet their requirements. Reasoning from any angle the Reo Speed Wagon is the best truck for it combines quick service with economy of operation. The Speed Wagon is manufactured by the Reo company and not assembled.

VELIE CAR IS 'PROVEN' PERFORMER

It is admitted by most owners of motor cars that they think that their particular car, no matter what the length of time may be that it has been in their possession, can do everything but talk. This is particularly true of a Velie owner, for each owner feels that there are at least five things his Velie can do a little better than any other car. First, a Velie can do more for less money, that is for a lower initial cost. Second, if you can skim along at sixty—a Velie can also go that fast and sustain the speed on less gas and oil. Third, a Velie can sail along through traffic at less than two miles an hour and never miss a beat. Fourth, on hills or in mud, a Velie will take you through as though you were on a cement road. Fifth, a Velie gains friends every day. Why not call 1923, ask for Mr. Leach, and let him show you?

TWO DROWNED

Man's Heart Failed and He Fell Over Gunwale of Boat

WINDSOR, Ont., Aug. 28.—During an attack of heart failure Philip Reuter today fell over the gunwale of a boat he was rowing on Sunnyside canal near Centre Street, and spent the night with the loss of two lives, his own and that of 4-year old Doris Shahan. Two other occupants of the boat were rescued.

Lowell Delegate Back

every cigar makers' convention since '74 as the delegate of the local in which he still holds his card. "Of course Mr. Gompers is getting old," said Mr. Garvey this morning in speaking of his trip. "He told us that he really believes this would be his last convention and in speaking on various resolutions urged us to seriously ponder on his counsel. He told us, as no one can deny, that he has always been right with us and that he will leave us right. It was rather pathetic to hear this great man speak of his words as his swan-song before the International Clear-makers, but the conviction which he lent to his words was most inspiring."

Change Strike Vote Ruling

legislation enacted by the convention was a change regarding strike votes by subordinate locals. Heretofore when strike votes have been taken by a local it has been invariably the rule to declare strike without awaiting formal sanction by the international body. This has caused serious internal trouble within the organization at times that could as well, or better, been avoided.

Hereafter under the new ruling a local, after voting to strike, must await sanction from the international before setting the time the strike will go into effect. Failure to adhere to this ruling will result in suspension of strike benefit payments. This is expected to prove an effective means of premature moves on the part of locals without becoming in any sense restrictive.

Gompers Halts Socialistic Move

A resolution presented by socialist members of the international, calling for endorsement of the plan to organize a National Labor party, was defeated. Mr. Garvey and the entire New Hampshire delegation lined up with Samuel Gompers against the plan.

Mr. Gompers declared the principles of the two great parties of today are sufficiently substantial and that what is needed is not more parties, but an improved calibre of candidates. "Vote for the Best Man" of the United States to take necessary steps for recognition of the Russian soviet government and urging the unrestricted opening of trade relations with Russia was also ignominiously defeated.

Against Russian Recognition

A resolution asking the government

"Russia has nothing to sell us and is unable to buy anything," Mr. Gompers said in speaking on the question. "I urge his fellow delegates to pay strict heed to his advice, saying it would probably be his last bit of counsel ever addressed to the clear-makers as a separate union, he gave a brief resume of Russian conditions."

The riddance of the czar he favored, but he deplored the "rule of the sword" by the soviet, who declared, "broke up the rule of the people and compelled all to sympathize with their movement or starve."

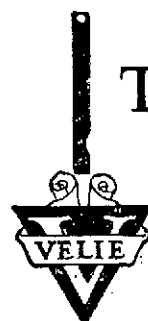

America the Life-Saver

Over 20,000,000 starving souls were saved from death only by the free spending of over two hundred million American dollars, Mr. Gompers told the convention. "There are no unions in Russia," he said, "and no unions will be tolerated unless they are subservient to soviet rule and soviet dictation. Investigators who visit Russia from this country seldom see behind the scenes. They see what the soviet has prepared for them to see, what the soviet is willing that they should see."

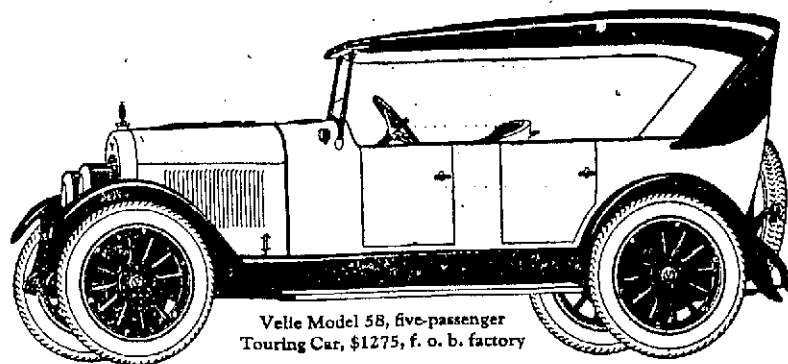

Wall Street Influence Mentioned

Those favoring the passage of the resolution declared his business opinion favors a repealing of trade activities with Russia as promising to be most beneficial to the United States. They further declared certain Wall Street influences were the cause of recognition being withheld.

Such talk was derided by Mr. Gompers who said persons who knew little of Wall Street, its aims or its workings, were always quick to misinterpret its views and intentions and would make the most unfounded statements with a most authoritative voice. He declared that many of the bankers in the street were in favor of recognition, but that at this time union labor had best withhold from leading any endorsement to the demand.

UNABLE TO SLEEP—DEPRESSED AND NERVOUS

Quickly Relieved by Wincarnis

"For several years I had been in a weak and run-down condition. I had frequent fainting spells which always left me almost completely exhausted. I suffered so with nervousness that the least little thing would make me jump and it got to be almost impossible for me to get a good night's sleep. I would get terrible fits of depression which would last for days. I had taken doctors' medicines and tonics without number, but nothing seemed to do me much good. I saw Wincarnis advertised and decided to try a bottle. In an incredibly short time I got back my strength, my nervousness disappeared and I could sleep peacefully as a child. I really believe Wincarnis is the greatest of all tonics."

AMUSEMENT NOTES

B. F. KELTH'S THEATRE
Murray Kissen & Co. in "The Barber of Seville" spread about a barrel of fun at the B. F. Kelth theatre, this week. The four men who participate in the act are singers and comedians, and their work is filled with laughs. Bob Hall writes a popular song while you wait, and he does a mighty good job of it. His audience supply the themes.

Charles L. Marshall and Mabel Blaine have an odd mixture of dancing and singing. The act is different and lively every minute of the time. Dancers who have all of the very latest steps are Percy Oakes and Pamela De Lee. Other specialty good turns on the bill are Betty Washington, violinist, and Nathano Bros., comedy roller skaters. "Masters of Men" with a superb cast, also shown at every performance.

THE STRAND

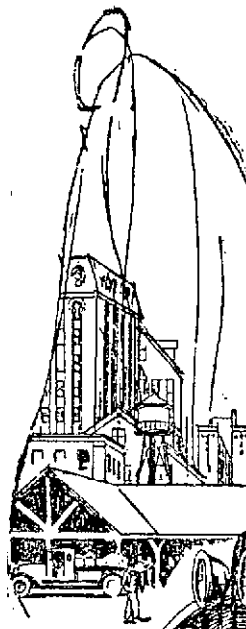

"Daddy," the latest, and considered by many the best picture in which Jackie Coogan ever appeared, will be shown for the last time today at The Strand. This offering gives this juvenile star opportunity to display dramatic as well as comedy attainments. You will like the star and story. Host Gibson in "Out of Luck," is the story of a cowboy who wanted to become a sailor, but who changed his mind after two days and nights on the briny. See it and laugh.

For the last three days of the week, starting with matinee on Thursday, the his Mastrice Tourneur production, "The Tale of Lost Ships" will be featured. This offering probably holds the record for thrills and real sea action. A vividly realistic storm at sea is only one of the many gripping scenes enacted on the screen during the progress of this unusual story. Director Tourneur spent many days on the ocean waiting for a storm to come up so that he could film an important part of the story. So severe was the outbreak of the elements that the director, cameraman and his outfit had to be strapped to the railing and other parts of the ship in order to save them from being swept overboard, with the result that they "shot" a storm such as has never before been seen on the screen. Milton Sills, Anna Q. Nilsson, Frank Campeau and other are in the cast.

John Gilbert in "Madness of Youth" is another feature worthy of special notice. It's a highly dramatic offering, and shows the star in one of his best parts.

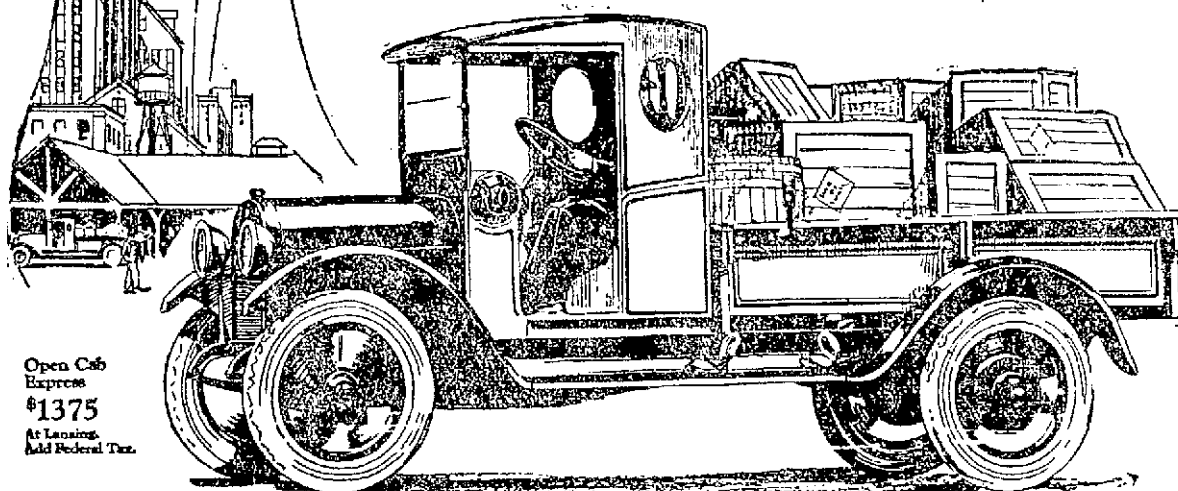

RIALTO THEATRE

Lionel Barrymore in the title role of "Jim the Penman" does the finest bit of character work ever seen on the screen.

SPEED WAGON

More than 130,000 Speed Wagons are supplying haulage service in 263 lines of business, 100% satisfactorily.

Simply because it delivers the goods quicker and cheaper than any other method of motor haulage!

Figured any way, Speed Wagon economy is a tangible, provable factor.

There's a remarkably low initial price on the chassis,—and on any of the twelve standard bodies. So interest charges are naturally low.

Intake valves located in cylinder-heads; exhaust valves, offset; spark-plugs scientifically placed; cooled to the point where gasoline energy is converted into power instead of heat dissipated through the muffler—this motor not only develops tremendous power for its size, but reciprocating parts are built to sustain excessive strain.

Endurance for 100,000 to 500,000 miles of service is inbuilt in every Speed Wagon. A carrying capacity of 500 to 2500 pounds enables profitable pay loads and a low overhead.

In city delivery,—on the farm,—in passenger bus service,—in rural hauling,—in any business where commercial carrying is a factor, the Speed Wagon dominates.

Manufactured in the Big Reo Shops,—not Assembled!

Capacity, 500 to 2,500 pounds. Chassis price $1185. Twelve standard body styles.

screen. One hardly needs to go into details regarding the merits of both the play or the player in this film. It will be shown at the Rialto today, only along with "The Old Homestead," starring Theodore Roberts. A very strong program is booked for tomorrow (Thursday). "The River's End," said to be the most absorbing story Curwood ever wrote, and Rodolph Valentino in "Blood and Sand" will be shown. "The River's End" is a smashing story of God's country, of the snow wastes of the frozen north, where there are no traditions and men meet life with all the strength of the soul within them—villains who may be good or bad, but whatever they are, they are strong. Lewis Stone is seen in a double role in "The River's End." First he is seen as Keith, the outlaw, wanted for murder, then he is seen as Coniston of the Royal Mounted who is out to "get" Keith. Coniston is about to arrest Keith when he is stricken ill, and in his dying moments, the fugitive wins his confidence. They bear a great resemblance and Keith taking the dead man's clothes starts back to the Royal Mounted post. Coniston warns him, however, that he would win or lose, when the chief first sets his eyes on him. Does he "let" away with it? See "The River's End." Others in the cast include Marjorie Daw, Barney Sherry, Jane Novak and Togo Yamamoto. The companion feature, "Blood and Sand," shows Valentino as a dashing young bull-fighter, hero of a nation—and a great lover. While he risks his life for fame in the bull ring, two women risk all in fighting for his love. Romance, spectacle, heart interest, above all life—in the land where life is lived to the full. This is the masterpiece of Vincente Blasco Ibañez, whose stories have thrilled millions in books and on the screen. Nita Naldi and Lila Lee have leading roles in the film.

"I had a severe case of pimples. They itched and burned causing me to scratch and when I scratched them it caused them to spread. I could not rest very good for every once in a while I would wake up and scratch them."

"I tried cold cream but it did not help any. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I could see a change in my skin, which completely healed me in two weeks." (Signed) Miss Emily Sterling, 111 Pleasant St., South Weymouth, Mass.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Again the management of the Merrimack Square Theatre is offering a program of entertainment of that is incomparable. Two super-features that are bound to please the most critical movie fan are to be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday on the other sheet. Viola Dana, that winsome, talented little star, has the best comedy-drama to reveal her versatility she has ever had. "A Noise in the Woods" is just the happy combination of swiftly moving plot, laughs and fine pathos to solve it.

Miss Dana plays the role of a girl who was neglected in her home town because she was poor. As Martha, she resents the littleness of Newbern and resolves that some day she is going to rouse the town worthy citizens from small town complacency. After she becomes a famous artist in New York, she goes back to Newbern and she is more than successful in making a noise. What a racket it is! There are many pleasure thrills and the home characters are portrayed true to life. An excellent support is given by the headliners David Butler, Eva Novak, Allan Forrest.

is a compelling drama that combines every element of emotional appeal. "The Fog." This powerful story has for its background "Fate." There is no stronger, mysterious word that brings adventure, romance, pathos, humor, triumphs, defeats, to the mind. All this and more is in this absorbing, fascinating picture.

Separated by distance unknown to one another, living different lives—yet across the vastness love called them.

He the boy and dreamer; she, the girl without a name. Passing obstacles, trying to overcome distance, finally ending in one another's arms, who dance and sing that there isn't some power that determines even before our birth our destiny and mates.

The cast itself is worthy of mention as a feature. Mildred Harris, Louise Fazenda, Louise Dresser, Clifton Landis, Ralph Lewis, are the leading players.

"Let 'er Run," a comedy that will keep laughs going all the time, is also on this exceptional bill. The News, with its up-to-the-minute world happenings balances one of the strongest programs ever presented at this popular playhouse.

The management also is announcing that with Sunday, Sept. 2, Paramount Week will be observed here. A diverging bill will be presented that will set the policy for the new season.

POPULAR LADY ENJOYS QUICK RECOVERY

Dreco Makes New Woman of Her. All Signs of Trouble Disappear

Miss Nettie H. Riley of Wicwauville, near Lowell, Mass., says:

"I tried a lot of medicines but the money was just thrown away. And I had about given up hope of finding anything that would relieve me of my suffering when I read of how Dreco was helping men and women all over the country."

"Soon after starting on this medicine I began to feel better. And in a short time all signs of my trouble disappeared. I now feel better than I have felt in years, as I tell my friends. And I only hope that what Dreco has done for me will prove a recommendation for its restorative powers to other people who are suffering as I did, whose life is a nightmare who want to again enjoy perfect health."

Call today at Green's Drug Store and ask to talk with Mr. Preble, the expert from the Dreco Laboratories. He will courteously tell you of the merits of this wonderful remedy. Also he will honestly tell you whether or not he thinks Dreco will benefit you. Dreco is sold in Nashua by Nashua Drug Co., 175 Main St., N.H.

LEGION BACKS RUHR POLICY

Owsley Says Legion Stands With and Approves Action of France and Belgium

Delivers Stirring Address at Paris—Made Commander of Legion of Honor

PARIS, Aug. 29.—The official reception for the entire American Legion delegation by Marshal Leger, wounded veteran of Verdun, who is vice-president of the city council, supplied an occasion for the most outspoken remarks made by Col. Alvin M. Owsley. The national commander of the American Legion came to France with a delegation of legionnaires to attend the conference of the inter-allied veterans at Brussels next month.

A short time before Col. Owsley made his brief response to M. Herault, he was notified that he had been appointed a commander of the Legion of Honor and that the decoration officially will be conferred upon him by Gen. Degoutte, the French commander of occupied Germany at Dusseldorf on Thursday in military fashion.

"The American Legion, whose commander I have the honor to be and for whom it is my distinction to speak, representing four million or more soldiers," said the Legion chief in reply to the welcome from M. Herault "is the one great standing American organization that has declared before the world that it stands with and approves the action of France and Belgium.

"We have faith in the expression uttered so lately by your distinguished Premier M. Poincare," continued Col. Owsley, "that France does not desire to occupy any territory belonging to other people except to obtain reparations from our recent enemies. We feel France will make good her pledge and that as the Germans actually fulfill their undertakings on reparations that the armies of France will be removed from Germany.

"I should not be true to you or to myself if I did not speak plainly and frankly. To you French, we ask that no thought of territorial aggrandizement be in your mind, but we would not desire that France be left defenseless before those who would seek to invade her coast. But you must sustain your friends in the United States by giving your enemies no opportunity to question your motives."

Col. Owsley's rise to the Legion of Honor is one of the most rapid in memory, as he was nominated immediately to be commander without having passed through the lower grades of knight and officer. The French government for that matter let the rank of commander was commensurate with the place that the commander-in-chief of the Legion holds in American public life.

Leave For Rheims

PARIS, Aug. 29.—The American Legion delegates to the inter-allied Congress of War Veterans at Brussels left Paris this morning for Rheims for a tour of the battlefields.

Col. Alvin M. Owsley, commander of the Legion, R. N. Jackson and R. Condon are then to proceed to the Ruhr, while the other members of the delegation plan to go directly to Brussels where they will be joined by the rest of the party in time for the opening of the congress on Saturday.

LAWRENCE MAN KILLED

Albert Martin Fell From Roller Coaster Car at Merrimack Park

Albert Martin, 22 years old, of 131 Park street, Lawrence, was instantly killed when he pitched forward out of a car on the roller coaster at Merrimack park last evening and fell 60 feet to the ground. His body was picked up and rushed to the Lawlor hospital in Methuen, but after an examination there Dr. Rolfe Norris stated that death had been instantaneous.

Martin was riding in the front seat of the first car of a three-car train with Lawrence Cyr of Lawrence. Cyr's story is that when the train reached the summit of the second incline, Martin suddenly pitched over the front of the car. The momentum of the train carried the body some little distance and then it dropped to the ground, a distance of 60 feet.

Officials at the park stated after the accident that Martin must have stood up in the car, lost his balance, and been thrown out. They claim this is in contrary to warning signs against standing up. Cyr, however, says that Martin did not stand up, but appeared to topple forward in his seat and fell out before he could give assistance.

COURT MERRIMACK, P. OF A.

The regular meeting of Court Merrimack, 11, Foresters of America, was held last evening in Gratton hall, with a large attendance of members and visiting brothers. Dreams of Childhood Come True When Sisters Marry Earls

MISS SARA COOK

By N.E.A. Service

MONTREAL, Aug. 29.—The last chapter of a fairy tale of childhood comes true in being written in the social register here.

It began 15 odd years ago when two pretty little girls were playing together in the nursery of George Cook, one of Montreal's captains of finance.

A nurse had just been reading to them a tale of chivalry and romance. The children were enthralled. They dropped their dolls and playthings and listened attentively.

But finally the story ended and the older of the sisters sighed:

"When I grow up I am going to marry a soldier when he comes back from the war."

"And I shall marry a soldier, too," chimed in the younger girl, "but he must be an earl!"

The older girl came back:

"Yes, I think I shall marry an earl, too."

The nurse smiled and repeated the story to the children's parents. They laughed and passed it up as just a dream of childhood.

But two years ago Miss Marion Cook, the older sister, startled her friends on two continents by the announcement of her engagement to the Earl of Minto.

And now comes the final rounding out of the prophecy of childhood with the engagement of the younger sister, Miss Sara Cook to the Earl of Haddington, a noble, as heroic as any character in the fairy tales.

He comes of one of the oldest families in the nobility of Britain. Ancestors of his have served in the army and in the law. At one time no less than three sons and a father were at the same time filling the highest judicial office in Scotland of lord of the sessions.

Both early fought in the great war—making them soldiers and earls—just as the girls had dreamed.

612 GALLONS OF ALCOHOL SEIZED

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—Two motor trucks containing 612 gallons of alcohol, valued at over $6000, were seized by the East Boston police today. The drivers, Vincent DeMauro of East Boston and John R. McQuinn of Chelsea, were arrested and charged with the illegal transportation of liquor.

In Saugus the police today captured two alleged rum-runners as they were unloading 300 gallons of alcohol from a boat in the Saugus river. They gave their names as Mac Augustine of Malden, and Andre Senchales of Boston.

WAGE INCREASES TO BE CONCELLED

LACONIA, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Notices have been posted in the hosiery mills here to the effect that the increases in wages granted to employees on May 28 are to be cancelled beginning Monday, Sept. 3.

About 1500 employees are affected. The increase granted in May totalled 12½ per cent. Lack of business was given as the cause.

however, satisfied them that it was not the body of his daughter and detectives took up the search anew.

The body was taken to the police station and the father hastily summoned. He took one look and said it was not Lillian, but the police were not satisfied and sent for Mrs. McKenzie. She was spared the ordeal of viewing the remains when further examination convinced the police that they had come across the body of an abandoned and not a kidnapped child.

Although the child was about three months old and had blue eyes, examination showed that it was heavier than the sickly Lillian.

The McKenzie case, which has stirred the city, has been claiming columns of front page space. Three newspapers have offered rewards totalling $5000.

Lillian was taken from her paramour in front of a department store on West 15th street, while her mother was shopping. She was a sickly child and feared that she might die if not properly fed led to publication in the newspapers of her diet formula.

Enlisted in the search have been 155 detectives, thousands of taxi drivers, 10,000 boy scouts, members of the Salvation Army, Catholic Sisters and a sympathizing public. Hundreds of false clues have been run down.

MILLIONS OF LIVES SAVED

Col. Haskell Reports on Activities of American Relief Administration in Russia

Declares Communism in Russia Dead—Country Now on Road to Recovery

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The story of the saving of millions of lives in Russia by American aid will be "told lovingly in Russian households for generations," Col. William N. Haskell, declared in a final report, published today, on the activities of the American relief administration in that country.

The report, submitted to Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce and chairman of the relief administration, summarized the two years of relief work which the gift of $60,000,000 by the American people and congress had made possible and asserted it had won for America a lasting inheritance in good will of the Slav race.

Declaring that communism in Russia is dead and the country is on the road to recovery, Col. Haskell added that the "realization by the Russian people that the strong American system was able and contained the spirit to save these millions of strangers from death that had engulfed them must have furnished good for thought."

"The checking of famine and pestilence," he said, "threw the corner for civilization in Russia" and lifted the Russian people from despair to hope.

But the claimants are waging a fight, and in order that her interests in the matter may be protected sharply to those of Mrs. Gravel, who has retained Atty. Gen. McManey. Mrs. Bernabe has engaged Attorney Arthur L. Ebo as counsel in her behalf.

Atty. Ebo says that the cat will now be examined by an expert of Mrs. Bernabe's choosing, to determine whether or not it ever gave birth to kittens. Dr. Eaton of the Humane Society, has already decided that it never did, or never could, but Mrs. Bernabe is not satisfied with this, particularly as she still insists that the cat has three times given birth to kittens, while Mrs. Gravel says the cat never had kittens.

And as both women are positive in their identity that the cat in dispute is their cat, the issue hinges on the establishment of the above fact.

WORLD RECORDS BY ARMY AIRMEN

Capt. Smith and Lt. Richter Shatter Speed, Endurance and Distance Marks

Also Succeeded in Taking on Fuel for Their Plane Not Less Than 15 Times

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 29.—(By the Associated Press) Beyond the static ideal achievements of Captain Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. John P. Richter, army aviators, who had broken several world records for endurance and distance and speed when they landed early last night after circling above the city continuously for 27 hours and a quarter, a new feat flutters from the scroll in the sky on which the mechanical romance of aviation is being written.

The new chapter, while less spectacular, has implications perhaps more momentous. For Captain Smith and Lieut. Richter took on in mid-air fuel for their Delatand plane no less than 15 times. They had accomplished the feat before, but only as a dan-

Onions, Celery and Lettuce Plentiful

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—There will be a plentiful crop of onions, celery and lettuce, according to a crop survey just completed by the department of agriculture. The late commercial onion crop is placed at 12,643,000 bushels, which is two percent less than the 1922 production but 34 percent larger than that in 1921. About 2,182,000 crates of late commercial celery, practically the same as last years crop, are expected and 5,568,000 crates of late lettuce, compared with 3,993,000 crates in 1922 and 2,666,000 in 1921.

NEW ALL-METAL PLANE

French Officials Complete Series of Strain Resistance Tests on New Model

MAIRSEILLE, Aug. 29.—French aviation officials have completed a series of strain resistance tests on a new model of metal plane that mounts six machine guns and two rapid-fire rifles. Sand bags and lead weights totalling 66,000 pounds were placed on the wings, while similar weights were applied to other parts to determine the plane's ability to withstand stress at high speed and high altitudes.

The great war machine is equipped with four 250-horse power motors. It is capable of carrying fuel to last seven hours at a speed of 115 miles an hour.

FOR LOWER PRICED COAL

President Coolidge and his coadjutors may succeed in preventing the coal strike, but that is not all that is expected of them. It is high time the price of coal were cut down. The present price of anthracite is altogether too high and should be reduced. The United States coal commission is expected not only to secure for the people a continuous supply of coal but to make it available at a reasonable price.

When this talk of the strike is all over, the coal commission should find why the price of coal is so high, who is responsible for the high price and how it can be reduced. It is believed that either the operators or the railroads, or both, are charging too much and if so then the matter should be exposed and remedied.

Last year speculators in coal made large profits upon the necessities of the public; but it is not reported that they have thus far undertaken to plan any such campaign in case of a strike.

There is no reason why coal should continue to sell for war prices while other commodities have slumped one-half or even more. The high freight rates of course, add considerably to the price of coal; but according to the wall of the New England companies especially, there is slight prospect of a reduction. Yet the mine operators and the railroads are probably responsible for the high prices of coal. But if the coal commission fails to secure a lower price, then it is up to the people themselves and they can pull down the price by using substitutes.

They must learn to use soft coal and oil which is now becoming much cheaper. With the proper arrangements, either of these can be burned anywhere with highly satisfactory results if the people only know how to use them. If they do not know how, they are ready to learn and to have their homes equipped with the apparatus necessary to use soft coal and oil successfully for domestic heating purposes.

TRAFFIC BLOCKADES

Just picture to yourself what would happen if when Central street is blocked with motor vehicles and electric cars on a Saturday afternoon, the fire apparatus came banging along in response to an alarm for a fire in the Hamilton mill, the post office or the Old Washington tavern.

We do not say that these places are in special danger of fire, but we do say, that if a fire occurred on Saturday afternoon in that locality, the fire apparatus would have great difficulty in getting through Central street from Market to Tower's Corner. On that section of street, there are double car tracks, usually occupied by cars passing inward or outward, and with but one traffic line on either side, it is not surprising that there is a general blockade during the busy shopping hours on Saturday afternoon and evening.

It is true that when the fire bells ring, the auto drivers try to get into the side streets; but it is not uncommon to find blockades on Central street in which it is impossible for any vehicle to move until the traffic officer gives the signal to the head of the column to move on.

The great trouble is, that the street is too narrow, and how to remedy that defect is a difficult matter. It should be impressed upon the public that it is dangerous to press forward so as to produce a congestion in which nobody can move in any direction. The traffic officers do their duty at Market street and Tower's Corner; but in the intervening space the motorists usually crowd eagerly forward with the result that eventually traffic becomes completely blocked.

Were it not for the police, this condition would be of frequent occurrence; but at present it occurs only on Saturdays when the autos come out in full numbers. The prevention of such blockades on narrow streets is one of the great traffic problems awaiting solution. Either a wider street or relief through a parallel street would solve it; but there is no prospect of either in the near future. Meanwhile, it behooves the public not to block the right of way, which may be needed at any moment by the fire department. In the not distant future an effective remedy must be provided for this congestion of traffic but until the proper solution comes, the public must exercise caution and common sense.

A HYPOTHETICAL SURPLUS

Republican seers-shifters are at work setting the stage for the great and mysterious "transformation" they are to undertake for the country's delectation at the end of the current fiscal year. They are preparing to metamorphose a big imaginary deficit, which they are now devising, into a large fictitious surplus. In short, they are making ready to do next June what they did last June, to wit: take credit for turning an imaginary deficit into an equally phantasmal surplus.

The income for the current fiscal year, Director of the Budget Lord reports, is estimated at $2,156,555,084. By various calculations Director Lord reaches the conclusion that the government will have some $20,000,000 less in receipts than will be expended in the year ending June 30, 1924. It is a sad picture that Director Lord is drawing for the contemplation of the taxpayers; but there is a suspicion that it will give place next June to a beautiful vision of a phantasmal treasury.

Director Lord predicts that the government will collect $12,000,000 less in taxes this year than last. With what gift of clairvoyance it is useless to say. The result is not made plain. Assembled forecasts are not predicated on the facts as revealed in the treasury's report for July, the first month of the current fiscal year. Customs receipts in July were $1,000,000 more than in the same month of last year. Income and profits taxes were $1,000,000 greater in July of this year than in July, 1922, and miscellaneous interest revenues were $500,000 more.

If the public will follow Director Lord's ledgerman closely perhaps it will perceive him putting into his hat his little rabbit, "Surplus," which he intends to withdraw from it next June while the flags wave and the bands play.

That is how the "miracle" of $20,000,000 in 1923 was converted into a "surplus" of $2,000,000 last month.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE GAINING

One by one the republican leaders throughout the country are bowing to the standard of President Coolidge as the leading candidate for the nomination for president in the republican convention next year. If it turns out that the president with the assistance of Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania, succeeds in preventing the coal strike, it will add to his strength immeasurably throughout the country. The conditions that surrounded the controversy this year were even more difficult to handle than were those of last year. Consequently a settlement this year will bring lasting credit to President Coolidge unless he be surrender.

The farmers of the west are much concerned in reference to the president's attitude in reference to the coal strike.

Squirrels Swim Too

Christopher Sandvick of Canton, S. D., who with his wife and sons spent his vacation at Lake Campbell, reports the novelty of seeing a rabbit swim across the lake. Members of the party were near the lake when they saw a young rabbit jump in and without hesitation swim across.

Her Correction

The teacher wrote on the blackboard these words: "The toast was drank in silence," and then asked the class, "Can any one tell me what the mistake in the sentence is?" The pupils pondered. Then a little girl held up her hand, and at a nod went to the board and wrote the following correction: "The toast was ate in silence."

In the Big League

Some prisoners take matters cheerfully enough. A carload of them were being escorted to a federal prison with sentences ranging from 10 to 30 years. Just out of town they passed the county workhouse. "What's that?" inquired one. "That ain't de workhouse," was answered. "Is dat de workhouse?" asked another. "Sho' am." "Well, well, I did a year there once," in a voice of pride. "Dey, hush dat small talk. You ain't in de big league now."

'Nathin' Doing'

Joseph Orlick, a painter of Bayonne, N. J., fell 20 feet from a scaffold. An ambulance was called and a crowd gathered. As two internes stood over him, Orlick opened his eyes, saw the crowd of spectators, the ambulance and the ambulance. He jumped to his feet as the crowd and doctors stood around him. "Nathin' doing," he yelled as he fled. "I'm not hurt as bad as all that."

He Worked Hard

He was one of those men who never worked. He was always fat and healthy, eating three meals a day. At last the "Work or Fight" slogan came, and one of his selfish friends, home for a few days, happened to meet him. At a glance he noticed his huge frame and his weight, so the following conversation took place between them: "Hello, Bill! You're looking puny; what's the matter, been sick?" "No, it's work, work, looking bad, work from morning till night. How long have you been at it?" "Start tomorrow"—Los Angeles Times.

Carried the Mine

A promoter arrived in London from South Africa to hunt a gold mine. He brought with him a large piece of quartz dotted all over with nice little bits of gold. This proved so attractive that the necessary capital was quickly subscribed. At the first meeting of the directors, in order to inspire confidence and boost the stock, he dispatched a cable to his friend in South Africa saying, "Company successfully located. Start rushing for gold and before she has been turned to her neighbor and remarked: "Mrs. Kiehl, have you heard that Mrs. Tibbels has written to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals?" "Whatever for?" asked Mrs. Kiehl with interest. "Why?" replied the other lady. "She wants to know if something can be done to prevent horses being scratched. She feels sure it must cause the animals a great deal of suffering, because she heard her husband, who takes a lot of interest in horse racing, had been about a poor horse being scratched."

Didn't Follow the Rules

At the weekly meeting of the sewing circle the ladies were very fond of all bits of gossip. Mrs. Burke was no exception to this rule and before she had been playing her needle for very long she turned to her neighbor and remarked: "Mrs. Kiehl, have you heard that Mrs. Tibbels has written to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals?" "Whatever for?" asked Mrs. Kiehl with interest. "Why?" replied the other lady. "She wants to know if something can be done to prevent horses being scratched. She feels sure it must cause the animals a great deal of suffering, because she heard her husband, who takes a lot of interest in horse racing, had been about a poor horse being scratched."

Little House

Somewhere there is a little house. Where my childish day-dreams sleep; It stands on the road to yesterday. Where the slim, grey shadows creep.

Oh, lightly barred are the doors of it, And the windows are closed with care, But in front of it for a golden place That perfumes the summer air.

And I think, as they lie in the house, at rest, That the dreams of my heart must know The road where the earliest violets grow.

And the place where the roses grow! By MARGARET E. SANGSTER, In the Christian Herald.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

When one notices the number of out-of-state automobiles along the streets of Lowell, he is tempted to wonder whether or not Lowell cars are concentrating on the streets in cities in other states in large numbers. There isn't any way of finding out just how many Lowell people are touring in their cars this summer, but figures compiled by the Lawrence Automobile Club in reference to Lawrence and its vicinity may be interesting here, and also they might not be far out of the way as affecting Lowell. During the month of August the Lawrence club has routed 237 out-of-state tours, and it is estimated that this is about one-fourth of the number of automobiles from the city or town. The number routes and their distances is shown herewith: Approximately, 800 miles, 72 tours; 1000 miles, 132 tours; 1500 miles, 23 tours; 2000 miles, 17 tours; 2500 miles, 9 tours; 3000 miles, 14 tours; 3500 miles, 6 tours; 4000 miles, 4 tours; 4500 miles, 3 tours; 5000 miles, 1 tour.

In commenting upon an article in this column the other day, relative to the proper use of words, Attorney Daniel J. Donahue told me a story of a man who had a penchant for the word "impaired," and whenever he got a chance "impaired" was thrown in somewhere. This fellow was employed as a gardener on a big estate and a friend of the boss had been arrested for some misdemeanor. So he despatched the weary fellow to the city marshal with an appeal for the man under arrest. And the ambassador made the plea, winding up with the remark: "Do what you can for him, now marshal, because you know the boss is very much implicated."

Several times recently I have heard it remarked that Lowell is a good town. Built to the fact that the fact that the town showed little tendency to financially support the City Twilight League. Since its inauspicious entry into the Massachusetts League, the Lowell C.M.A.C. team has proven a great magnet in attracting the fans to the Twelfth summer and which team has been in the cellar position all season. The turnstiles continue to move with good numbers attending every home game. It is not a winner that tests the fidelity of fandom, but a loser, and Lowell fans have generously supported the summer and which team has been in the cellar position all season. DISTRACTION

Day and night, in alleys and dark corners, hoping against hope, Peter McKenzie, New York City, hunts for his kidnapped baby daughter. Distracted, he believes she has died, and that her body is hidden.

FATHER FOUND TWO-YEAR-OLD BOY VERY SICK

Was Constipated, Thin, No Appetite, Had Swollen Lips, Stomach Pains

A hardy woodsman and enthusiastic fisherman of Maine, has a very interesting record to report. He writes: "As a boy, thirty-seven years ago, I began to take Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. Once after six months hauling logs, I came out of the woods and found my two-year-old boy very sick. He was thin, had no appetite, had swollen lips, pains in stomach, was suffering from constipation for months.

"I had not been in the house an hour when an elderly lady—a good neighbor—came in and told my wife to get a bottle of Dr. True's Elixir, saying she had seen numbers of similar cases which it had relieved.

"My boy was given a half-dozen doses of Dr. True's Elixir, when he passed a lot of worms and right away began to show improvement; he began soon to eat with a relish, play around and look healthy. He did not have to take a full bottle, and in later years whenever he got off his feed, a few doses would straighten him out quick.

"When I get constipated, a couple of teaspoons of Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, fixes me O.K.

"My son is grown up now and has a family of six children, and he has practically raised his family on Dr. True's Elixir. The children go out and get hold of something not good for them. It's hard to watch all the children, and so when they eat something they shouldn't and get sick, Dr. True's Elixir is given and the family is put in good shape again.

"I have read in the papers you have to take a half a dozen bottles of some remedies, but you don't have to do this with Dr. True's Elixir. Simply a few doses and then quick relief. The three generations of my family have been kept healthy by using it."

Symptoms of worms, constipation, offensive breath, swollen upper lip, defunct stomach, occasional pains in the bowels, pale face, eyes heavy and dull, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, red spots on the tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

Nearly every child and grown-up needs a laxative some time. The fond parents safeguard the health of their children, as well as their own, by keeping their bowels in condition. The herbs used in Dr. True's Elixir are imported and of strictly pure quality. No harmful drugs. Keep the bowels regular by using Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. 46c—60c—$1.20.—Adv.

HOW PAPERS CAN THE BIG STICK HELP THE U. S.

Pres. Coolidge Replies to Letter Sent by Head of Southern Publishers

Undivided Allegiance to Constitution and Obedience to Law Leading Factors

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 28.—Undivided allegiance to the constitution and unhesitating obedience to legislative action were urged upon the press of the nation by President Coolidge in a letter to A. G. Newmeyer, president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' association, made public here yesterday.

The president's letter was in reply to one written by Mr. Newmeyer, who asked the executive to send him a terse, exclusive message for the southern publishers, broadly answering the question as to how the newspapers can best serve the federal government at this time as he was personally anxious to have the membership of the association co-operate with the administration in every manner consistent with their individual policies.

The letter to Mr. Newmeyer, who also is an official of the New Orleans Item follows:

"My dear Mr. Newmeyer: Your very kind message and the general assurance which it contains of support on the part of the newspapers of your association, has been received. Every newspaper can be very helpful in its support of the government, whether it be state or national. Fundamentally this means always making the authority of the law supreme. It means unqualified allegiance to the constitution and unhesitating obedience to legislative action made in accordance with its provisions.

"Constructive criticism is always helpful. It keeps institutions from becoming fossilized and falling into decay. But constructive criticism does not accomplish its purpose merely by pointing out what is evil. It must not fail to direct attention, with more emphasis, to what is good. Our institutions, our social organization, our economic conditions are all of a quality and quantity which are worthy of our admiration. I believe that it will be helpful to public sentiment if these principles can be reiterated from time to time, joined with a reverence for religion and an aspiration for better things.

"Very truly yours,
"CALVIN COOLIDGE."

STEVENS TO COACH HARVARD CREW

AMBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 28.—Subject to the formal approval of the Harvard athletic committee, Edward A. Stevens of Portland, Oregon, will coach the Harvard varsity crew next year. This was announced yesterday in a joint statement by John Richardson, chairman of the Harvard advisory rowing committee, and B. M. Henry, captain of the varsity crew. Stevens will be assisted by Samuel Shaw, also of Portland, Oregon.

Hammond Favors Using It in Hard Coal Crisis

BY HARRY B. HUNT, N.E.A. Service Writer.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The time has come for the government to use the "big stick" on the coal industry, in the opinion of John Hays Hammond, chairman of the United States Coal commission, and other members of that body who have been laboring to prevent a walkout of anthracite miners Sept. 1.

Executive action, following emergency authorization by congress, is suggested by Hammond and approved by other members of the commission, by which the government, in a situation such as exists today in the anthracite fields, would take over the operation of the mines and the transportation, distribution and marketing of the coal.

"The time has certainly come to establish control in the anthracite industry," says Hammond.

"Coal is quite as much a public necessity as gas, street railway service, or other services or commodities that have been brought under public regulation.

Respect Public Interest

"The guiding principles in coal production as in these other enterprises must no longer be maximum profit to the owners, but maximum service to the public.

"What is clear in the present situation is that the public interest in the operation of the mines must be respected and served, and that this requirement places limitations on the rights of owners of coal lands, coal operators, mine workers, carriers and dealers alike.

"The president of the United States should be authorized by congress to declare that a national emergency exists whenever through the failure of operators and miners in the anthracite industry to agree upon terms of employment or for any other reason there is a suspension of mining operations, seriously interrupting the normal supply of anthracite fuel, and to take over the operation of the mines and the transportation, distribution and marketing of the product, with full power to determine the wages to be paid to mine workers, the prices at which the coal shall be sold and, subject to court review, the compensation to be paid to land and mine owners."

Special Session Doubtful

Whether this recommendation will result in the calling of a special session of congress by President Coolidge, to ask for a grant of the specific powers outlined, or whether Coolidge will find some means of accomplishing the same result by different means, seems uncertain. The need for prompt, vigorous action makes some Boston Relief hospital, where he was treated and sent to his home.

ALLEGED SWINDLER OF $103,000 CAUGHT

MAN FALLS IN FIT 30 FEET UNDERGROUND

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Hugh Gibbons, 50, single, of 45 Pearl street, Charlestown, who is employed as a foreman in the East Boston tunnel by the Transit commission, was taken with an epileptic fit yesterday afternoon while at work about 20 feet below the street level. Gibbons fell on his face, landing several feet below in an excavation, in an unconscious condition.

His fellow workmen rigged up a slings and raised him to the street level, later conveying him to the East Boston Relief hospital, where he was treated and sent to his home.

ALLEGED SWINDLER OF $103,000 CAUGHT

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—James Collins, known as "the square-faced kid," alleged to be an internationally known confidence man, yesterday was arrested as a fugitive from justice from New Jersey, and was held in $50,000 bail.

Collins, who is 35, has been sought for three years on a charge of operating a race-horse swindle at Long Branch, N. J., through which he fleeced three victims of $103,000.

Collins and three confederates are alleged to have represented in literature sent through the mail that they were in possession of confidential information about the outcome of races. George C. Armitage of New Kensington, Pa., invested $33,000 and lost. A Portchester, N. Y., man is said to have been duped out of $20,000, and a third man, a resident of New Jersey, lost $58,000.

Collins was arrested in October last for having defrauded Martin Gibbons, Jersey City stock broker, of $58,000 and jumped $17,500 bail.

FALL RIVER WOMAN PAYS $17,300 FOR MILL

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Elizabeth L. French of Fall River, Mass., yesterday acquired the mill property of the Quaker Spinning company on Child street, Warren, whose bid was $17,300, the highest made to the receiver. Mrs. French may become a manufacturer. It was stated after the sale.

There is Danger in Crowded Cars—Lifebuoy Combats It

Mother is the Health Doctor

Mothers have made Health Soap their chief assistant in the fight against disease.

Lifebuoy enters new homes every day—and brings a new safety, a new kind of cleanliness, a new pleasure in keeping the skin immaculate.

The odor vanishes—
but the protection remains

THE germ danger is greatest in crowds. Germs are deposited by other hands on everything you touch.

That is one reason why children so often become ill after a holiday excursion. The moist little hands touch everything and are too apt to convey germs to mouth or nose.

Yet precaution is so easy. Take along a cake of Lifebuoy Health Soap. Purify hands and face at frequent intervals. Get rid of these dangerous disease germs before they have a chance to get into the system.

Germs are everywhere. You may pick up millions of them in any of the following places:

Street Cars, Subways, Railroad Cars, Ferry Boats, Sick Rooms, Taxicabs, School Rooms, Moving Picture Houses, Shopping Centres, Theatres, Crowded Streets, Stuff Offices, Lodge Rooms, Crowded Workrooms, Public Meetings, Locker Rooms, Play Grounds, Public Wash Rooms and many others.

Purify Your Hands and Face! Protect Your Health!

Tiny germs are attracted to the naturally oily surface of your skin in much the same manner that flies are attracted to sticky fly-paper. They imbed themselves, they multiply and they gain entrance to the body and the blood stream at the first opportunity.

Millions of germs collect upon a scratch, a bruise, a cut; and in many cases infection sets in almost immediately.

Keep these germs off your skin with Lifebuoy Health Soap. That is the surest, safest, easiest way to combat them. Lifebuoy Health Soap not only protects—it is one of the most soothing soaps ever perfected—and wonderfully beneficial to the skin.

Keeps Skin Soft and Radiant

Its generous lather of the pure oils of palm fruit and coconut carries deep down into every pore a wonderful health ingredient which wakes up your skin and keeps it smooth, sweet and beautiful. For family health and for fresh, wholesome, healthy skins keep Lifebuoy wherever there is running water. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

It's His Girl-Wife in Far-Off Islands Pancho Thinks of as Shadows Fall

PANCHO VILLA

BY BOB DORMAN
N. E. A. Service Writer
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Sactoga Lake, N. Y., Aug. 28. Basking in the sunshine on the steps of Luther's hotel is a brown-faced, rugged, but shrewd-looking man, a far-away look while he idly strums a ukulele.

Pancho Villa is his name. He's the sensational little filibuster, who in the short space of a little over a year, came to this country and won and lost the Hawaiian title, and today holds the world's title of the right champion, by virtue of his defeat of the veteran Jimmy Wilde.

Pancho's mind is often back in Manila, where his 16-year-old bride awaits the day when she will be able to rejoin the husband who left her after but one month of wedded bliss.

"Yes," he says, "I would like to see my wife again, but she does not want to leave her parents, and they are too old to make the trip to this country."

STRAIGHT AND NARROW Paris is inclining toward the straight and narrow outfit, with flares to make it interesting.

"And I can't go back, for there I can't make the money that I get in this country."

"We Filipinos are not rich like the Americans, and the fighter there gets very small purses."

"I don't believe that I ever will return to Manila. When I am through fighting I will open a little store, and sell the products of my country."

"I will bring my wife here, after her parents are gone, and then we will be happy together."

The strumming of the ukulele went on.

The girls, young and old, who flock about the little fighter, who try to flirt with him, and dance with him, who try to entice him into their big cars for a ride, get only a slow smile and a soft spoken refusal for their pains.

Pancho's heart is far away across the Pacific.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES AT READVILLE

READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 28.—The Mass. 286 circuit for a purse of $10,000 and two colts races, the American horse breeder trophy for two year old and three year old trotters, are on the second day of the grand circuit meeting here today. An added feature, if conditions permit, will be the effort of Peter Manning, trotting against time, to lower the track record of 1:57.1, posted here last year owing to showers which left the going heavy. The Nonpareil 2:07 pace and a 2:59 trot, complete the program.

Yesterday's event was won by Car-rida are among the entries in the Massachusetts trot. The Senator, Ella Mullen and Jane Rivers will start in the three year old futurity. Unsettled weather last night and early today was expected to result in a slow track again.

GENARO BEATS WOLGAST IN WHIRLWIND BATTLE

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Frankie Genaro, the American flyweight champion, came through with colors flying at the wasthead, in his bout with Bobby Wolgast of Atlantic City, N. J., at the Mechanics building last night.

No title was involved, contrary to expectations, as both were over the flyweight limit, according to the authorities.

Despite the absence of the championship belt, the fans saw one of the greatest battles between little men of the ring and quickly forgot all about their earlier disappointment.

It was one whirlwind of boxing, punching, punting, dancing and rope work from the first bell to the last, going the 10 rounds distance to a decision. Wolgast, though the claimant of a prior win over Genaro, was far from on the winning end, in fact, had very few of the rounds. Despite this, however, he forced the fighting for more than three-quarters of the distance, never took a backward step and showed himself to be a game, willing, hard-punching, two-handed fighter.

Billy Evans says

In baseball the breaks of the game often go entirely contrary to the odds.
That is the element of uncertainty that makes the national pastime such a great sport.

It was my good fortune to open the season at the new Yankee stadium in New York. The day prior to the opening game, I went out to the park to familiarize myself with the conditions.
It was apparent at a glance that many breaks would result on the field.

In taking the ground rules over with Manager Huggins, I called attention to the possibility of a break in the ground being a perfectly good ball coming that seemed to be lost during the summer when an ordinary single would take a high bound and clear the low wall for a home run. It didn't take long to prove my theory. In the second or third game of the season a visiting player singled to right, a very ordinary hit, only to have the ball bound over the wall and into the right field pocket for a home run. It nearly cost the Yankees the ball game.

Manager Huggins admitted the break possibilities in discussing the situation, but took the sportsman's view when he stated that it was all even that the Yankees had the same chance as the visitors to prove to the visitors probably been well had the breaks been even. Such has been far from the case.

I am told that if break, or perhaps it would be better to call them jake home runs have been made at the Yankee stadium this year. I am also informed that of these unusual happenings only one has worked to the advantage of the Yankees. In 17 instances the visitors have profited, and perhaps a half dozen defeats have been chalked up against New York that were in a sense undeserved.

This condition, while it hasn't been an even break for the Yankees, has worked for the visitors. I understand the New York club prior to next spring will change the layout of the Yankee field in a most decided manner. By moving the home plate out 15 or 20 feet, the foul line will be so changed that a drive into the bleachers will be a real home run. Incidentally the pocket in right field will be entirely removed by taking down some of the higher seats in that section and making the field much larger.

If the Giants and the Yankees should again meet in the world series, break home runs may play a prominent part in the result of the event. Both parks are so arranged that often ordinary fly balls that should be easy outs upon into the stands for jake home runs. The contemplated changes at the Yankee field will not only greatly improve the playing territory, but make it better for the spectators to follow the play from big stands like those at the Yankee park.

WOMEN TENNIS STARS IN SEMI-FINAL ROUND

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Molla
Maloney, former national champion,
Miss Edith Kitchener, of Boston, Miss Leslie Bancroft, number two in the national women's ranking, and Mrs.
Edwin F. Falk, former indoor tennis champion, met today in the first round of the semi-final round of the annual invitation tournament of the Rockaway Hunt club.

Mrs. Maloney advanced yesterday by defeating Mrs. A. E. Kiser, Michigan state champion, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3. Miss Kitchener defeated Mrs.
A. E. Kiser, 6-2, 6-3, and Miss Bancroft eliminated Mrs. A. DeGers-dorf, 4-6, 6-1. Mrs. Falk won two matches during the day, first defeating Miss Phyllis Walsh, 6-1, 6-1, and then putting out Miss Rosemond Newton, of Boston, 6-1, 6-4.

STAGE SET FOR BIG FAIR

Three-Day Fair at Golden Cove Park. Will Open
Tomorrow

Efforts to secure "Laddie Boy" for the household pet of the late President Harding, as a special feature exhibit of the dog show at Golden Cove park Saturday afternoon are being made by the committee in charge of this feature of the big three-day fair which opens tomorrow noon.

As it is desired to have a large representation in the show entries will be received up to 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon when the judging will begin.
L. E. Wotton, Leon Mullin and Joseph Ladd have charge of this feature of the fair. They have ordered 35 prize ribbons for distribution.

Under 35 Prize Ribbons
Early entries indicate that interest in the dog show will run high. Boston spaniels, English bulldogs, Pomeranians, Airedales and terriers galore have already been entered. There will be ribbons for every class from toy to Newfoundland and exhibition dogs will be admitted to the fair grounds free. A registration charge of twenty-five cents an entry will be made as dogs are assigned their classes.

State Police to Show
Four members of the state constabulary will be detailed to attend the affair and give exhibitions of trick and fancy horseback riding. The state police are daring and competent equestrians who are certain to provide many thrills.

L. E. Wotton, second vice president of the Lowell Driving club, presided over a committee meeting in the Wame-sh building last night at which all plans were completed.

Opening Parade Tomorrow Noon
A parade from Cabot street to the scene of the fair bicycle racing and judging of agricultural exhibits will take up all of tomorrow afternoon as the big three-day affair gets underway.
Horse racing will be the king sport Friday afternoon, while Saturday afternoon horse and dog will vie for the greatest honors.

With eighty horses entered for the various events competition in every class will be taken and some spirited

For The Very First Time in Their Lives Seven Sisters Are United

By NEA Service
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 28.—For the first time in their lives, seven sisters are eating from the same table together.
They are the children of Samuel and Augusta McGarry.

The younger is 56; the oldest 73. And by a strange twist of time, never before have all been in one house at the same time.
The oldest daughters were married before the younger ones were born at their original home at New Castle, Pa.

Then came the passing of time, and the scattering. Some went east, some west, some south, and some north.
One of them conceived the idea of a reunion. One letter to each was needed. Buses were packed and from the farthest corners of the country the sisters wended their way to the home of Mrs. Ella Porter here.

The sisters came from pioneer stock and can trace their family history back for generations.
They say they hope this reunion won't be the last one.

Fountain of Youth Found at Last In Town Where No One Grows Old

By NEA Service.
MORAVIA, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Found: the fountain of eternal youth.
It's right here in this small upstate town. But the passerby who seeks it in a hurry can't find it; for it doesn't spring from the waters of the public park, nor the brooks of the main road. Nor is it everywhere.

The natives can prove it. Of the population of 1500 persons, 150 men and women have passed the three-score years and ten mark. And many have passed it so long ago that they speak of their seventieth birthdays in the time "when we were young."

"When Ponce de Leon came to America to search for the fountain of eternal youth," they say, "he had the right idea, but the wrong place." He went to Florida; he should have come to Cayuga county. We know.

And they have known for a long, long time. For 88 of the natives have passed their eightieth birth-

Charlestown Man Killed During Quarrel

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Dennis O'Brien was killed at his home in the Charlestown district early today when he fell to the floor and his head hit the edge of a sink after a blow alleged to have been struck by John W. Hunt, a bouncer in the house. Hunt was arrested. The two men are alleged to have quarreled after O'Brien, proprietor of a near-by saloon, had charged Hunt with having given liquor to a young woman.

Greek Official and Aides Assassinated

LONDON, Aug. 28.—General Telini, president of the commission for the delimitation of the Greco-Albanian frontier, Surgeon Major Sorot, the general's chauffeur, and his aide de camp, have been assassinated, says an Athens dispatch to the Central News. Word of the assassinations comes from Janina, Albania, the message adds.

TWO WOMEN FOUND SHOT TO DEATH

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 28.—Police combed the Italian section of Denver today in search of a man named "Joe" in the belief that he could throw light on the slaying of Mrs. Roy McGlone, 28, wife of a Denver athletic instructor, and Mrs. Emma Vasovic, 12, a hotel employee, who were found shot to death each with a bullet in her right temple—last night in the bedroom of Mrs. McGlone's apartment.

Efforts to find a motive for the double slaying were fruitless.

AIR FLIVVER DEMOLISHED

CHERRINGTON, Aug. 28.—The multi-torpedo flying machine in which George Darbot established his world's record for a motorless flight, was demolished today when a gust of wind picked it up from a beach and threw it against a sand dune.

days, and many of them have lost a year or two to become nonagenarians. They look upon those who are but 70 as children.

The combined ages of these men and women amounts to 17,321 years. There is almost no sickness among these venerable men and women. Some of the older ones are beginning to find it a bit difficult to hear well and a few of them use glasses when they read. But they have all retained their interest in affairs of the world, their joy in living. All but a very few are still actively mingling with their acquaintances about town.

Miss Julia Everson, 90, is one of the oldest and most loved women in the town. Many years ago she was a "school marm." Now she says she's "just an old maid."

"A picture," she said, "well, maybe, if you will wait until I dress up a bit."

Then there is Charles W. Bridgen, an 85-year-old blacksmith. He daily rides his bicycle the half mile that lies between his home and his shop. Every night he rides it home again.

"We young fellows have to do. Another of the 'young ones' is the county judge. Mr. Day is practicing something to keep in shape," he said, hopping on his wheel.

Don. S. Edwin Day, 84, who for 12 consecutive years held the office of law now and is president of the Moravia National bank.

He'll tell you the same story that you'll get from all the old natives—if you want to stay young, come to Moravia.

BRIDGEPORT THEATRE THREATENED BY FIRE

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 28.—Park theatre, one of the oldest in the state, was threatened with destruction by fire this afternoon, when for half an hour flames in a pile of some effects in the basement and later spread to the main floor, where it was controlled.

The theatre was recently leased by S. Z. Bell and was to have been used as a public auditorium, according to Mr. Bell's announcement.

MURDERED WOMAN LIVED IN CONSTANT FEAR

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 28.—Mrs. Roy McGlone, led to death late yesterday by her slayer, Mrs. Emma Vasovic, the 12-year-old girl, lived in constant fear of her life, and two attempts recently had been made to kill her, Roy McGlone, her husband, declared today on his return from a mountain resort he was visiting when the two women were slain.

BROOKLYN MAN MISSING

Jeweler Worth $200,000 Disappears — Discharged Employee Suspected

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—An employee, discharged a year ago because of incompetency, who swore revenge, may have been the cause of the mysterious disappearance of George Harris, a Brooklyn jeweler reputed to be worth $200,000. It is feared by his family, who informed police today of his disappearance.

The missing man was seen last Sunday night at a garage where he had gone to leave his car. Leaving his wife at the doorstep, he asked her to keep his hat until he returned.

Harris' accounts were reported intact.

PRES. COOLIDGE'S VIEWS ON BUSINESS SITUATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—President Coolidge's first pronouncement on the general business situation made at the White House today through an authorized spokesman, was that the country needs primarily at the present time a feeling of stability, confidence and assurance, and the knowledge that things are going on smoothly. It was added that Mr. Coolidge proposes to do all within his power to aid in the development of such a feeling and to that end does not propose through public addresses to add to any uncertainty.

DISCOVERY OF GOLD CAUSES STAMPEDE

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Aug. 28.—Discovery of placer gold reported to run as high as $4 gold to the pan on the Toklat river, sixty miles from the Alaska railroad has been the signal for a general stampede from Nenana, Healy and other interior points, according to advices received here. The find was made by Indians.

The Toklat river empties into the Nenana river. The route followed by the stampede leads through Mount McKinley national park.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 14

Jack had also made friends with one of the men who had the care of the store room in the hull of the ship. So when he suggested making a wooden anchor the man offered to help. Shortly they were both working with small hatches on a huge piece of wood. The anchor was started.

For several days Jack sneaked down and worked on his wooden anchor, until it was finished. He then painted it black and you could hardly tell it from the regular iron anchor. "Now, tonight," Jack told the store room man, "we will drop the real anchor and put this one on."

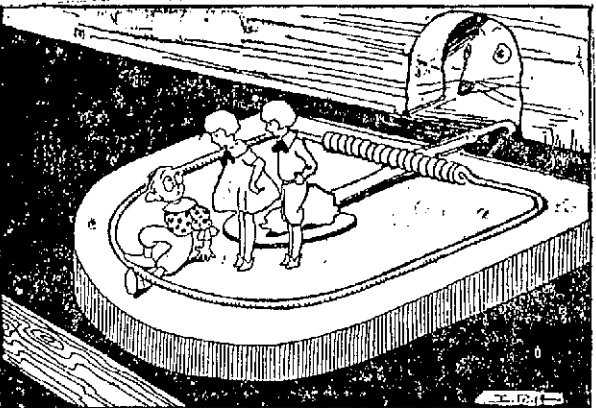

So, when the moon was high in the sky and all on the ship had gone to bed, Jack and Kettles and the store room man, dragged the wooden anchor out on deck. Then they let the iron anchor slide easily into the water, and Jack cut through the rope that held it. (Continued.)

WHAT HAPPENED TO PAUL PRY

"I WANTED TO SEE HOW IT WORKED," ANSWERED THE PEE WEE BOY FAINTLY.

"Ding, dong, ding dong!" went the school bell in Pee Wee Land.

Nancy and Nick heard it the minute they turned the corner.

"Good land! What's that for, do you suppose?" cried Nancy. "There's no school now. This is vacation."

"Hurry up!" said Nick, starting to run. "Maybe there's a fire."

But there wasn't any more fire than there is in the refrigerator, my dears. However, there was quite as much excitement as if there had been forty fires.

King Shookums was rushing about, and every Pee Wee was rushing about and looking in all the houses and down all the holes and up all the bushes and weeds and everywhere.

The Twins knew the trouble at once. "Somebody's lost, I'll bet you anything," said Nancy.

And that's what it was. Little Paul Pry Pee Wee was gone.

MAN WANTED FOR ALLEGED LARCENY OF AUTOMOBILE IN LOWELL ARRESTED IN MAINE

Officer William Liston of the police department left this noon for Bangor, Me., to bring back William S. Smith, to face trial here on a charge of stealing a Ford sedan from in front of Keith's theatre on May 20. The auto is the property of William Hughes of Milford, N. H., who was attending a performance in the theatre when the auto was stolen.

Smith was arrested Monday night in Bangor after the police had received complaint of a man camping on a private lot. He was locked up as a suspicious person. The Ford had Maine registration plates, but in the car the police found New Hampshire number plates, which were identical to the plates on the car which had been stolen in Lowell.

The local police were notified that Smith was under arrest and that he had agreed to waive extradition. Accordingly Officer Liston left this noon for Bangor.

A certificate of registration for another car was found made out in Smith's name, and his address as 121 Hanover street, Manchester, N. H. The Lowell police got in touch with the Manchester authorities and after an investigation they reported that Smith was not known there.

Engineer Company, Organized Reserves, Would "Get in the Swim for Sullivan"

A company of 419th Engineers, Organized Reserve, fully equipped, will come to Lowell from Haverhill to take part in the welcome home reception to Henry Sullivan if the committee in charge of the affair wishes them to do so. The Haverhill company is in charge of Lowell's contingent and he so notified Major Francis J. Toney, executive officer in charge of the Organized Reserve in this district, who has informed the chairman of the reception committee, James J. Bruin.

Letterheads are now being printed for the Sullivan reception committee and bear a photograph of Henry Sullivan in swimming trunks. As soon as the letterheads are ready, invitations to attend the reception will be mailed to Governor Cox and to the mayors of all Massachusetts cities as well as to the state's senators and representatives in congress. The committee will also ask the American Red Cross company to send their advertising airplane to write the word "Sullivan" in the sky during the reception.

Another calligram has been sent to Henry Sullivan in England, by Mayor Donovan, asking that a definite date of his return be given. The general committee in charge of the reception will meet in Liberty hall again on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

It is hoped that these organizations that are sending representatives to last Friday's meeting will send them to this meeting. Those desiring to contribute to the welcome-home fund are requested to make their contributions to Edward W. Gallagher, treasurer, at the office of the Chamber of Commerce in the Fairbank building. The contributions may be made either by check or by cash. If checks are used, they should be made payable to Edward W. Gallagher, treasurer. "Get in the swim for Sullivan" is proving a popular and catchy slogan that is getting results.

FIRST MATCH IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The first match for the girls in Class B is the tennis championship tournament, being conducted under the auspices of the park department at Shedd park, was won last evening by Alice Sheehan, who defeated Dorothy Glendon in two straight sets by scores of 6-0 and 7-5.

In the first game of the boys' championships last evening, Edward Mahoney and Horace Manning battled it out to a no-decision, the boys halting play in the third set, 4-4, while Manning took the second, 6-1 and was leading 4 to 2 when play was called. The pair will resume their duel this evening, on the same basis as when play was interrupted.

The first victory in the senior men's tournament went to the famous Japanese star, Wasaburo Inawaka, who defeated Dick, 7-5 and 6-3. This evening, Phil Mahoney and Bob Merrill will be the winners.

TROLLEYMEN GET WAGE DIFFERENCE

Employees of the street railway company are today receiving the back pay awarded them in the recent decision of the arbitration board that settled the wage question between the company and the employees. An increase of six per cent, was granted the men by the arbitration board on August 1, to be retroactive to May 1, the date of expiration of the working agreement between the company and its employees. The average back pay for men who have worked regularly since May 1 is in the vicinity of $20.

PEARSON QUALIFIES AS A MARKSMAN

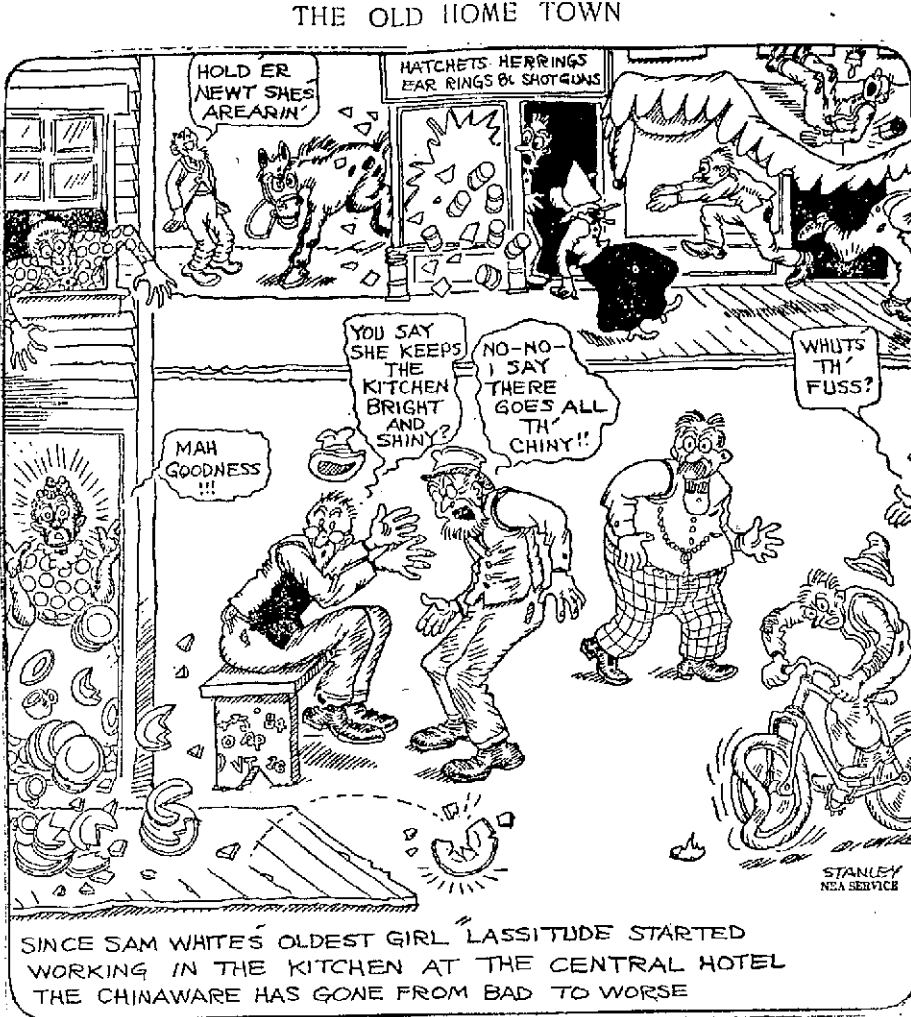

As a result of the recent contests on the rifle range at the C.M.T. camp at Devens, six students qualified as sharpshooters and 12 as marksmen. Among these qualifying for marksmen was William Pearson of Lowell, a member of the 1st company, who made a score of 142. Pearson was eighth-best in the field, the highest score made being 173.

CASE WAS LITTLE BIT COMPLICATED
The aftermath of an auto accident in Draught early in the morning of June 17, when an auto turned turtle and several people were injured, was reached in district court this morning when John Kiker of Charlestown was fined $20 for operating without a license, but was discharged on a complaint alleging reckless driving.

Edna Andrews of Charlestown, one of the women in the car who was injured, testified that Kiker was not driving the car at the time of the accident. Margaret Murphy, who was confined for 29 days in St. John's hospital as a result of the accident, also said Kiker was not driving at the time.

As there was no evidence, therefore, Kiker was ordered discharged on the charge of reckless driving.

AMABEL WILL BE AMIABLE

Promises Court to Sign Pledge and Stop Molesting Youthful Wife

Sheds Copious Tears When Arraigned On Neglect and Assault Charges

The domestic difficulties attendant upon a May-September marriage were aired before Judge Enright in district court this morning. Amabel Duarte was arraigned on a charge of assaulting his wife. On Monday the couple were in court but the case was continued until Saturday in the hope a reconciliation might be effected.

Yesterday Amabel and his wife met on the street. She appealed for police protection, saying he had threatened her and that she feared bodily harm. As a result Amabel again appeared in the dock today.

On behalf of the defendant ATTY. Cornelius O'Neill entered a plea of guilty, and in explaining the situation laid stress on the fact that the husband is 26 years older than the wife.

Mrs. Duarte said she is afraid of her husband, especially when he is drinking. Nevertheless she said she was willing to give him another chance, for the sake of their three children. If the court thought it would be best.

It developed that Amabel owned property worth in the vicinity of $2000. A suggestion that he turn this over to his wife for the support of the children and keep away from her altogether caused Amabel to weep copiously. In fact weeping was his strong suit while the case was under consideration.

Judge Enright told him to save his tears; that they didn't have any effect on the court and the water was shot off quickly.

Amabel pleaded for a chance, agreeing to sign the astutest's pledge and live at peace with his family. As Mrs. Duarte listened to his painful plea, she wept and agreed to take him home with her.

The court imposed a suspended sentence of five months in the house of correction and a $20 fine. Amabel paid the fine and left with his wife.

VICTORY FOR FREE STATE

Early Returns Indicate Sweeping Victory for Government Candidates in Ireland

Nearly a Score of the Government Party Nominees Have Won Seats

LONDON, Aug. 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Early returns from the Irish election indicate a sweeping victory for the Free State candidates.

Nearly a score of government party nominees, including almost all the cabinet ministers have won seats by large majorities, while up to this morning the election of only three republicans was assured.

The government so far has eighteen successful candidates to about half that number for the other parties, and if the present ratio is maintained it may have a clear majority in the Free State parliament instead of the plurality which its supporters expected.

The English press generally refrains from comment until more returns are in, but the Daily Express already characterizes the polling as a republican rout and in an editorial under the caption "Exit the Value" says the republican leader has failed at the ballot box as completely as he failed in the field.

Complete Results Delayed
DUBLIN, Aug. 29.—Some days must elapse before the complete results of Monday's election can be published, says the Irish Times, adding that President Cosgrave and his colleagues have no reason to be disappointed with the returns already announced.

The Freeman's Journal asserts that the government party has done better than even the most optimistic of its supporters believed would be possible, while the Daily Independent declares that the outstanding feature of the first returns is the enormous total polled by the ministers. This, the newspaper adds, discloses a desire to give unqualified endorsement to the government program.

R. C. Barton, a republican candidate in Wicklow has been defeated.

Youth Killed During Celebration
DUBLIN, Aug. 29.—While Free Staters in Ballylough, Monaghan, were celebrating the election of their candidate, Ernest Lythe, shots were fired and a bullet which first passed through the arm of a man in the crowd lodged in the heart of a youth named John Francis Conlon, killing him.

Municipal Employees' Union Holds Smoker

A smoker under the auspices of the Municipal Employees' union was held last evening in Trades & Labor hall, Central street, in the form of an open meeting for all city employees and was attended by over 100 persons.

President Daniel Moynahan presided over the evening's program, which consisted of vocal and instrumental selections and readings. There were addresses by Mayor John J. Donovan, Councilor Edward J. Tierney, City Solicitor P. J. Reynolds and Joseph Garrity of the street department. Refreshments and cigars were served.

CABLE CENSORSHIP IMPOSED BY CUBA

LOWELL DELEGATE BACK FROM THE CIGARMAKERS' CONVENTION HELD IN CHICAGO

Samuel Gompers Big Figure at Meeting— Labor Leader Opposed to Socialism and Recognition of Russian Soviet Government—Lots of Beer and Booze

Thomas F. Garvey, delegate from Local 255 of Lowell, returned home last night after two weeks in Chicago attending the annual convention of the International Cigar-makers' union. He found Chicago a most town and says news of the passing of the Volstead law hasn't been seriously received there yet. Although he does not drink himself, Mr. Garvey says "the boys" had no trouble in securing lager or red-eye in the most open manner and that many were enthusiastic as to the quality.

Gompers the Big Figure

Mr. Garvey was warm in his praise for Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, the grand old man of unionism, who as a delegate from Local 144 of New York, city was the shining light of the convention. Mr. Gompers has attended

Messages to Cuba Subject to Censorship

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The Commercial Cable Company announced today that messages to Cuba were subject to censorship until further notice. The Western Union Telegraph Company said it had learned that yesterday inspectors employed by the Cuban government had visited cable offices in Havana and looked over various messages, but held nothing up. At the Cuban consulate ignorance of the censorship order was professed. Wall street received advices that the Cuban government has placed a censorship on telegrams to the island owing to political disturbances in the province of Oriente.

According to T. M. Drew, business manager of the commercial cable, the order was served on Havana officials of the company at 11 a. m. The order was immediately posted and the exchanges were notified. The order will remain in effect until further notice.

Washington Retires

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Although no official word has been issued by Cuba of a cable censorship between that country and the United States, it is believed by persons in close touch with the Cuban situation that the step was taken as a precaution against possible serious political developments.

IMPORTANT DATES TO REMEMBER

There are two dates Lowell folk should chalk down on their daily reminder pads lest they forget.

The first date to be recalled is Sept. 4, next Tuesday, when the thirty day period of national mourning for the late President expires. Flags will be hoisted to full staff on that day. President Harding died on Aug. 2 and the mourning period commenced the following day.

The other date is Sept. 30, when Eastern Standard Time again will become effective within the commonwealth. Under chapter 280, Acts of the legislature of 1920, clocks were advanced one hour at 2 o'clock on the morning of the last Sunday in April. They are to be retarded at the same hour on the morning of Sunday, Sept. 30.

Famous Lowell Cat Case is Closed—Legal Batteries Silenced

The far-famed Angora cat case is closed, and the probability of a legal battle over the possession of pussy is no more.

Last evening Mrs. Emma Gravel was sitting quietly on her door-step, probably thinking of her lost Angora, when "the cat came back."

Yes, indeed, the cat is back. And it was brought back by none other than Mrs. Leone Bernabe, who for the past several days has been at odds with Mrs. Gravel over the ownership of the cat.

And with the return of the cat to Mrs. Gravel, it may be reasonable to assume now that the cat was born in

Trail of Murderer of Methuen Police Officer Circles Back to Lowell

State Officer and Methuen Police Chief Question Lowell Doctor Who is Reported to Have Talked With Three Men in Automobile Believed by the Police to be Death Car—One of the Men Was Wounded

The trail of the murderer of Police Officer Arthur J. Bower of Methuen, which has already diverged through three states and even into Canada, today circled back to Lowell with the coming here of Chief James W. Riley of the Methuen police force and State officer Richard J. Griffin of Haverhill, who has been especially assigned to the case.

The two officers reached Lowell at Berwick, Me., 24 years ago and that it was never the mother of Ribbons.

Although the two officers refused to state anything after this conference, it is understood that they were working on information to the effect that this man had talked with three men in a touring car at a pond near Lowell early in the morning after the murder had been committed, and that one of the men had his head temporarily bandaged as the result of very recent wounds.

State officer Griffin stated after this conference that he was not in a position to say anything at this time, but he did admit that he and Chief Riley had some further work to do in Lowell. Whether or not he was going to have a talk with someone else, he

Lots of Water in Pawtucket Boulevard Wells—Committee Appointed to Investigate Methods of Assessors' Departments in Other Cities is Ready to Report—Other City Hall News

Although farmers in the neighboring towns report their wells to be drying up, there is no danger of a water shortage in this city. The water supply at the Pawtucket boulevard wells is above normal, according to Sept. Gardner and this week's showers are adding considerably to the reservoir.

The reservoir pumps are kept busy night and day. Mr. Gardner sees no danger here of a lack of water and says there is small chance that the Cook wells on Plain street, which are only put in operation in case of emergency, will be needed.

FEDERAL MEDIATOR TO BRING HIS INTERVENTION IN COAL DISPUTE TO A CLIMAX TONIGHT

Pinchot Calls Representatives of Operators and Miners to Meet Him in Joint Session at 6 P. M. to Hear and Answer Compromise Proposals, Which He Has Prepared in An Endeavor to Avert Strike

HARRISBURG, Pa., August 29. (By the Associated Press.)—Governor Pinchot will bring his intervention in the anthracite situation to a climax tonight. He called on representatives of the mine operators and officials of the miners' union today to meet him at 6 p. m. tonight, jointly, to hear and answer a compromise proposal, which he has prepared in the endeavor to avert the suspension of operations September 1.

The governor's peace proposal was practically in readiness at noon today. Among the advisers whose final word upon it was given during the morning, was Rev. Father J. J. Curran, a Wilkes-Barre Catholic priest, whose contention with settlement attempts in anthracite controversies dates back to the time of Roosevelt.

The only intimation as to what the governor had in mind in the settlement attempt gave the impression he would ask from both sides a 30 day truce, from the operators an abandonment of all but eight-hour day employment and the extension to union dues in company's office on pay day which is now done in some parts of the anthracite region and a resumption of direct wage negotiation between the leaders on both sides.

The employers' tender of arbitration for all disputed points, to which the union has taken a position of unyielding opposition, was said to have been set aside for the moment by the governor.

What he planned to do in case of a rejection of his terms by one or both groups, the governor would not say. Pinchot representatives, who have the impression that they would not take any compromise that did not carry with it a September 1 wage increase. It was doubtful whether the governor's terms would include this condition.

Drowned When Automobile Plunged Through Open Draw Into Waccamaw River

Mr. and Mrs. Culliver, Their Three Children and Mrs.

Connor Die Near Conway

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 29. (A. M. P.)—Two women and three children were drowned near Conway, S. C., early today when their automobile, plunged through an open draw into the Waccamaw river. Those who perished were Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Culliver, their three children, and Mrs. Mary Connor all of Conway. Mr. Connor also was in the car but escaped.

Peace Rests on Proposal

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 29.—With all the tangled skein of controversy in the anthracite region in his hands, Governor Pinchot worked today to prepare a compromise proposition on which all hopes of averting a suspension of Mining September 1 must rest.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, who has left the preliminary dealings with Governor Pinchot in the hands of one of his assistants, arrived early today in Harrisburg to take part personally in the final action.

Meanwhile, the operators and miners themselves had direct negotiations in progress to fix the conditions under which some union members may re-

HUNT WOMEN'S SLAYER

Murderer Was Wounded by One of His Victims in Her Fight for Life

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 29.—The slayer of Mrs. Lillian McGlone and Miss Emma Vasovic, who were shot in the McGlone apartment Monday afternoon was wounded by Mrs. McGlone in her fight for life, according to the theory advanced today by Chief of Police Duff Williams.

A blood-stained cloth lying on a chair beyond the reach of either of the women and the fact that Roy McGlone, husband of the slain woman, has identified the automatic pistol, found between the two bodies as one he left with his wife, support this conclusion, chief Williams said.

The search for Joseph Brindisi, said by Roy McGlone, husband of the slain woman, to have made three attempts to kill Mrs. McGlone, is without success. Brindisi, McGlone said, became infatuated with Mrs. McGlone, formerly a nurse, after she had nursed him through an illness early in the year. She spurned his attentions.

ASSOCIATE HALL OPENS FOR SEASON

Associate hall will open for the season Friday evening. The hall has been newly painted and a beautiful dance floor has been laid. In addition to these features a stair case near the stage has been built thereby relieving congestion at that end of the hall and enabling persons to go to the balcony by either end of the hall. One of the finest cooling systems in any dance hall has been installed which provides the taking out of foul air and the sending of fresh air every few minutes. It is expected that many persons from out of town will be present at the opening, and dancing will be in order Friday, Saturday and Labor day evenings.

KILLS BLUE JAY WITH GOLF BALL

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Jesse Richards, president of the Hempstead Golf club, killed a blue jay today with a ball which he drove from the eighteenth tee.

Just as he struck the ball the bird flew from a tree. Both bird and ball fell close to the tee.

STORY OF DISCOVERY OF ONE ARMED MAN SOUGHT AS KIDNAPPER

HAGERSTOWN, Md., August 29.—Lee Houser, laborer, who last Thursday claimed to have discovered a box containing over $100,000 in gold and bills, while working on a road near here, last night declared the story was a hoax.

Nevertheless he took exception to statements made by C. S. Wheeler, who said his young son had found the box, but that Houser had taken it from the boy's hands. Houser is reported to have said that Wheeler had no right to claim any box which he might have.

One of Houser's fellow workmen declares he saw a coin and the box. Houser now says he took a coin from his pocket and threw it on the ground, causing the report to be circulated that he had found a fortune.

Houser is said to have visited a lawyer during one of his mysterious absences from home recently, and neighbors believe he found and has hidden the treasure, fearing that the government would take it if it were found to be that said to have been buried in this vicinity by Grover Bergdoll.

Two department of justice officers are here looking into the case.

FIVE ITALIAN MEMBERS OF MISSION SLAIN

ROME, August 29.—The assassination of five Italian members of the Greco-Albanian Boundary Mission here, and it is announced that the government has already taken "the severe measures" the extraordinary gravity of the situation warrants.

An official report of the massacre, forwarded by the secretary-general of the inter-allied military commission for the delimitation of the Greco-Albanian boundary, to the Council of Ambassadors, says that the five men killed were: General Tellini, Dr. Corti, the medical attaché, Lieutenant Banacini, Farpeti, chauffeur, and Craveri, an interpreter.

DEATHS

MCCARTHY—Mrs. Catherine McCarthy, wife of William J. McCarthy, passed away at her home, 54 Shaw street, this morning, following a brief illness. Mrs. McCarthy had been a resident of Lowell for the past 25 years. She was born in Oregon 62 years ago. Deceased was a faithful attendant at St. Peter's church and the news of her death was received with sincere regret by a large circle of acquaintances. A woman of genial manner and lovely womanly traits, Mrs. McCarthy had surrounded herself with a host of friends. Besides a husband, Mrs. McCarthy is survived by two sons, William H. Jr., and Walter; also a brother, William Hinds of Pepperell and a sister, Mrs. Ellen Riley of Ayer. Eight nieces and four nephews also survive.

BARNARD—Phyllis Barnard, a resident of this city for the past 11 years, died yesterday at the Lowell isolation hospital, aged 61 years. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Odile Barnard and Mrs. Vhaline Cadora of this city and Mrs. Andre Fontaine of Acacia, P. I., and one brother, Joseph Barnard of Augusta, Me. The body was removed to the home of his sister, Mrs. Nadeau, 53 Worthen street, by Undertakers Amodeo Archambault & Sons.

BRUNEAU, JR.—Charles E. Brunneau, Jr., son of Charles E. Brunneau (Lundry) Brunneau, died yesterday at the home of his parents, 5 Oak avenue, aged 5 months and 10 days.

MARSHALL—Francis A. Marshall died yesterday at his home in Chelmsford, aged 71 years. He leaves his wife, Susan, three sons, one daughter, Mrs. Thomas L. Hamilton, a grandson, all of Chelmsford and one sister, Mrs. A. O. Lawrence of Littleton.

SULLIVAN—Warren J. Sullivan, son of Corinne (McClair) Sullivan, died this morning at the Massachusetts General hospital, Boston, aged 25 years. The body will be taken to the home, 755 Marchant street, Boston, by Undertakers James J. Connelley & Sons.

COUCHESSE—Emma Couchessee, 53 years old, died this morning. She leaves a brother, Frank Couchessee of Holyoke. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers Amodeo Archambault & Sons in Merrimack street.

FUNERALS

SWALLOW—Funeral services for Edward S. Swallow were held at the Evangelical church in Tenaford Monday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Smith. The selections, "Peace to Peace" and "Lead Kindly Light" were sung by Mrs. A. C. Hadley, with Lester A. Sherburne at the organ. The bearers were George Merrill, D. L. Colburn, Forrest Merrill and Charles Nelson. Burial was in the Thompson cemetery. The arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Harlan Davis of Nashua.

LARABEE—Funeral services for James B. Larabee were held yesterday afternoon at the chapel of Funeral Directors John A. Wicks, 42 Middlesex street. Rev. Appleton Grant, pastor of St. Anne's Episcopal church, officiated. Appropriate selections were sung by Mrs. Charles Young, who also represented St. Anne's church. The bearers were Joseph Farrell, Frank Salome, Anthony Joy and George A. McCarthy, all members of Lowell Post, No. 1, American Legion. Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery.

MANAHAN—The funeral of Kirk Manahan took place yesterday afternoon from Saunders' funeral home, 217 Appleton street. Services were conducted by Rev. Appleton Grant, pastor of St. Anne's Episcopal church, and were largely attended. The floral tributes were beautiful. The bearers were Walter Wright, Charles P. Stone, Esq., Max Stone, Percival Stone, Fred Busby and Paul Gott. Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Grant presided at the funeral. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker, William H. Saunders.

NASH—The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Nash took place this morning at 8 o'clock from her late home, 101 South street and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The funeral cortege proceeded to St. Peter's church where at 9 o'clock a funeral high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan. The choir sang the Gregorian chant, the solos being sustained by Joseph and James E. Donnelly. Miss Gertrude Quigley presided at the organ. There were many floral and spiritual offerings. The bearers were William Haydon, Charles McNulty, Dennis Nash, Ernest A. Tate, Daniel Corby and Patrick's cemetery. Burial took place in St. Patrick's cemetery where appropriate prayers were read by Rev. P. Heffernan. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers M. B. McDonough & Sons.

BRUNEAU—The funeral of Edward Brunneau, son of Charles and Anna (Lundry) Brunneau, took place this morning from the home of his parents, 5 Oak avenue, at 10 o'clock. Rev. Joseph J. Pratt, O.M.I., officiated. The funeral high mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock by Rev. Joseph J. Pratt, O.M.I. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

Hope Abandoned for British Steamer

SHANGHAI, Aug. 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—Hope was abandoned today for the British steamer Mylie, five days overdue from Chin Wang Tao, with coal. The vessel was last seen on August 16, battling a typhoon. It is believed that all aboard perished, including the six foreign officers and fifty odd Chinese in the crew. The chief officer was John R. Hudson, who gained some prominence as an Antarctic explorer and scientist.

LOWELL WOMAN FINED UNDER TRAFFIC LAW

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—Hannah E. Moors, attractively gowned Lowell woman, paid $25 in East Cambridge court yesterday. Judge Coughlin found her guilty of refusing to stop her car on the signal of Traffic Officer Kelley.
Kelley said he had signalled her to stop, as she was going too fast along Memorial drive, Cambridge, and she three times refused to obey his signal. When he pursued and caught up with her, he said, she and another man and woman in the car abused him. He quoted the defendant as saying if she were a man he would get what was coming to him.

Every Business Woman Needs This More Than a Vacation

When you don't sleep well these hot summer nights and wake up feeling fed and tired, what good is a vacation going to do? The trouble with most business women is that they overtax their nerve energy; they haven't the vigor to go through a hard day's work with enough strength, energy and "p-o" left over to enjoy evenings.
BUILD YOURSELF UP! Feed like enjoying yourself regardless of whether you go on a vacation. Take a good tonic, as your doctor would advise. Countless numbers are using Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Serum because it is delicious to take and so strengthening, nourishing and well suited to the stomach. Helps you increase appetite, round out the girlish lines of your figure with firm, solid flesh. Improves taxed nerves, wakes up the torpid liver, gently corrects constipation, clears up the complexion and sends healthier blood coursing through rosy cheeks.
TRY THIS TONIC! Take a delicious tablespoonful after the next few meals. Quickly notice the big difference in the way you eat, sleep, look and feel. And if you are not completely satisfied the small cost will be refunded without question by your druggist. The Dr. Thacher agencies are at Green's Drug Store, Frye & Crawford Drug Co., A. W. Dows & Co. and Noonan's drug store.—Adv.

PAPYRUS TO RACE IN U. S.

Ben Irish, shown leading Papyrus, winner of the English Derby, plans to send the horse to America to race the best three-year-old of this country for the world title. Papyrus will be ridden by Donoghue, shown mounted here. The race is to be held at Belmont Park, N. Y., Oct. 20. The winner will receive $100,000.

PRES. COOLIDGE TO OPEN PONY EXPRESS RACE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—President Coolidge on Aug. 31 will press the button that will signal the beginning of the Pony Express race from St. Joseph, Mo., to San Francisco, the local committee in charge was informed today. The finish of the race will be at the Taitorian race track here on the afternoon of Sunday, Sept. 2. Fifty miles beyond St. Joseph after changing horses five times the first rider will pass the message to a second, who will take it sixty miles with six changes of horses. The race will continue in that fashion with the exception that where the grades are steep the riders will change horses each mile. On the flat stretches they will change about every ten miles. The big object will be to break the record of the old riders of the "Y. E." who made the course in seven days and 21 hours of actual running time. The distance is 2200 miles.

REO TRUCK REMOVES TRUCKING PROBLEM

Lowell business and manufacturing firms who have trucking problems are gradually being rid of the bugbear of costly hauling by purchasing Reo transportation in the shape of Reo trucks. Reasoning from any angle the Reo Speed Wagon is the best truck for it combines quick service with economy of operation. The Speed Wagon is manufactured by the Reo company and not assembled. There are 12 standard body types designed by the Reo engineers to meet every demand of commercial carrying. Any truckman or manager who is either a present or potential truck user had best see "Dan McQuade," the local Reo agent for both pleasure cars and Speed Wagons and let him solve the delivery problem.

VELIE CAR IS PROVEN PERFORMER

It is admitted by most owners of motor cars that they think that their particular car, no matter what the length of time may be that it has been in their possession, can do everything but talk. This is particularly true of a Velie owner, for each owner feels that there are at least five things his Velie can do a little better than any other car. First, a Velie can do more for less money, that is for a lower initial cost. Second, if you can skim along at sixty miles an hour you can also go that fast and sustain the speed on less gas and oil. Third, a Velie can sail along through traffic at less than two miles an hour and never miss a beat. Fourth, on hills or in sand, a Velie will take you through as though you were on a cement road. Fifth, a Velie pains friends every day. Why not call 1999, ask for Mr. Leach, and let him show you?

TWO DROWNED

Man's Heart Failed and He Fell Over Gunwale of Boat

WINDSOR, Ont., Aug. 29.—During an attack of heart failure Philip Decker today fell over the gunwale of a boat he was rowing on Sunnyside canal near Petite Côte, and upset the small craft with the loss of two lives, his own and that of 4-year-old Doris Shahan. Two other occupants of the boat were rescued.

Lowell Delegate Back

every elder makers' convention since '74 as the delegate of the local in which he still holds his card. "Of course Mr. Gompers is getting old," said Mr. Garvey this morning in speaking of his trip. "He told us that he really believes this would be his last convention and in speaking on various resolutions used us to seriously ponder on his conduct. He told us, as no one can deny, that he has always been right with us and that he will leave us right. It was rather pathetic to hear this great man speak of his words as his own-swing before the International Clear-makers, but the conviction which he lent to his words was most inspiring."

Change Strike Vote Ruling

legislation enacted by the convention was a change regarding strike votes by subordinate locals. Heretofore when strike votes have been taken by a local it has been invariably the rule to declare strike without awaiting formal sanction by the International body. This has caused serious internal trouble within the organization at times that could as well, or better, been avoided.

Heretofore under the new ruling a local, after voting, to strike, must await sanction from the International before setting the time the strike will go into effect. Failure to adhere to this ruling will result in suspension of strike benefit payments. This is expected to prove an effective means of premature moves on the part of locals without becoming in any sense restrictive.

Gompers Halts Socialistic Move
A resolution presented by socialist members of the International, calling for endorsement of the plan to organize a National Labor party, was defeated. Mr. Garvey and the entire New Hampshire delegation lined up with Samuel Gompers against the plan.

Mr. Gompers declared the principles of the two great parties of today are sufficiently substantial and that what is needed is not more parties, but an improved calibre of candidates.

"Vote for the Best Man"
Mr. Gompers said that all candidates, their past and their present, should be carefully studied and the union man should vote for the best man put up regardless of political affiliations.

The vote on the resolution showed the big labor man had convinced the delegates on the soundness of his theory and his counsel, an overwhelming majority voting with him.

Against Russian Recognition
A resolution asking the government of the United States to take necessary steps for recognition of the Russian soviet government and urging the unrestricted opening of trade relations with Russia was also ignominiously defeated.

"Russia has nothing to sell us and is unable to buy anything," Mr. Gompers said in speaking on the question. Urging his fellow-delegates to pay strict heed to his advice, saying it would probably be his last bit of counsel ever addressed to the clear-makers as a separate union, he gave a brief resume of Russian conditions.

The riddance of the czar he favored, but he deplored the "rule of the sword" by the soviet, who declared, "broke up the rule of the people and compelled all to sympathize with their movement or starve."

America the Life-Saver

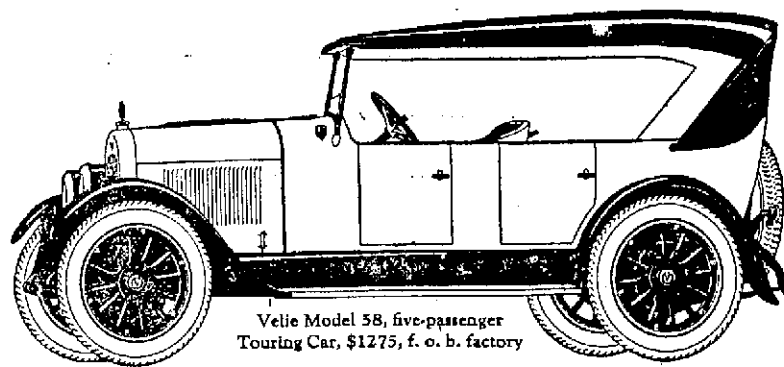

Over 25,000,000 starving souls were saved from death only by the free spending of over two hundred million American dollars, Mr. Gompers told the convention. "There are no unions in Russia," he said, "and no unions will be tolerated unless they are subservient to soviet rule and soviet dictation. Investigators who visit Russia from this country seldom see behind the scenes. They see what the soviet has prepared for them to see, what the soviet is willing that they should see."

Wall Street Influence Mentioned

Those favoring the passage of the resolution declared big business opinion favors a reopening of trade activities with Russia as promising to be most beneficial to the United States. They further declared certain Wall Street influences were the cause of recognition being withheld.

Such talk was derided by Mr. Gompers who said persons who knew little of Wall Street, its aims or its workings, were always quick to misinterpret its views and intentions and would make the most unfounded statements with a most authoritative voice. He declared that many of the bankers in the street were in favor of recognition, but that at this time union labor had best withhold from lending any endorsement to the demand.

UNABLE TO SLEEP—DEPRESSED AND NERVOUS

Quickly Relieved by Wincarnis

"For several years I had been in a weak and run-down condition. I had frequent fainting spells which always left me almost completely exhausted. I suffered so with nervousness that the least little thing would make me jump and it got to be almost impossible for me to get a good night's sleep. I would get terrible fits of depression which would last for days. I had taken doctors' medicines and tonics without number, but nothing seemed to do me much good."

I saw Wincarnis advertised and decided to try a bottle. In an incredibly short time I got back my strength, my nervousness disappeared and I could sleep as peacefully as a child. I really believe Wincarnis is the greatest of all tonics.

Delivers Stirring Address at Paris—Made Commander of Legion of Honor

PARIS, Aug. 28.—The official reception for the entire American Legion delegation by Marcel Hermand, wounded veteran of Verdun, who is vice-president of the city council, supplied an occasion for the most outspoken remarks made by Col. Alvin M. Owsley. The national commander of the American Legion came to France with a delegation of legionnaires to attend the conference of the inter-allied veterans at Brussels next month.

A short time before Col. Owsley made his brief response to M. Hermand he was notified that he had been appointed a commander of the Legion of Honor and that the decoration officially will be conferred upon him by

COLONEL OWSLEY

Gen. Desnoes, the French commander of occupied Germany, at Busseldorf on Thursday in military fashion.

"The American Legion, whose commander I have the honor to be and for whom it is my distinction to speak, representing four million or more soldiers," said the Legion chief in reply to the welcome from M. Hermand "is the one most standing American organization that has declared before the world that it stands with and approves the action of France and Belgium."

"We have faith in the expression uttered so lately by your distinguished Premier M. Poincaré," continued Col. Owsley, "that France does not desire to occupy any territory belonging to other people except to obtain reparations from our present enemies. We feel France will make good her pledge and that as the Germans actually fulfill their undertakings on reparations that the armies of France will be removed from Germany."

"I should not be true to you or to myself if I did not speak plainly and frankly. To you French, we ask that no thought of territorial aggrandizement be in your mind, but we would desire that France be left defenseless before those who would seek to invade her again. But you must sustain your friends in the United States by giving your enemies no opportunity to question your motives."

Col. Owsley's rise to the Legion of Honor is one of the most rapid in memory, as he was nominated immediately to be commander without having passed through the lower grades of knight and officer. The French government felt that nothing but the rank of commander was commensurate with the place that the commander-in-chief of the Legion holds in American public life.

Leave For Rheims

PARIS, Aug. 28.—The American Legion delegates to the inter-allied Congress of War Veterans at Brussels left Paris this morning for Rheims for four of the battlefields.

Col. Alvin M. Owsley, commander of the Legion, R. N. Jackson and R. Gordon are then to proceed to the Ruhr, while the other members of the delegation plan to go directly to Brussels where they will be joined by the rest of the party in time for the opening of the congress on Saturday.

Remove Dandruff

Then you will know true hair beauty. Dandruff cannot exist on a clean scalp and Gouraud's Oriental Coconut Oil Shampoo cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. It stimulates the natural hair oils into greater activity, helping to give the roots a vigorous, healthy growth that combats disease and takes away the dead, dry look. Delightfully perfumed. Use it consistently.

LAWRENCE MAN KILLED

Albert Martin Fell From Roller Coaster Car at Merrimack Park

Albert Martin, 28 years old, of 121 Park street, Lawrence, was instantly killed when he pitched forward out of a car on the roller coaster at Merrimack park last evening and fell 60 feet to the ground. His body was picked up and rushed to the Lawrence hospital in Methuen, but after an examination there Dr. Rolfe Norris stated that death had been instantaneous.

Martin was riding in the front seat of the first car of a three-car train with Lawrence Cyr of Lawrence. Cyr's story is that when the train reached the summit of the second incline, Martin suddenly pitched over the front of the car. The momentum of the train carried the body some little distance and then it dropped to the ground, a distance of 60 feet.

Officials at the park stated after the accident that Martin must have stood up in the car, lost his balance, and had been thrown out. They claim this is in contrary to warning signs against standing up. Cyr, however, says that Martin did not stand up, but appeared to topple forward in his seat and fell out before he could give assistance.

COURT MERRIMACK, P. OF A.

The regular meeting of Court Merrimack, 11, Foresters of America, was held last evening in Grafton hall, with a large attendance of members and visiting brothers. Chief Ranger Martin Harlan was in the chair and called for the reading of four applications for membership which were filed until the next meeting. Two candidates were admitted and other important business transacted.

PRIZE WINNERS ANNOUNCED

The prize winners in the contests held at the Sacred Heart church lawn party July 21 have just been announced. The trip to Washington was won by Mrs. Isabelle Kennedy of 12 Andrews street; the barrel of flour, won by Michael Kenney of 934 Garham street and $50 in gold was awarded Miss Rose Murphy of 35 Potter street for selling the most tickets.

BODY OF BABY FOUND IN RIVER

Was at First Believed to Have Been That of Little Lillian McKenzie

Parents of Child Kidnapped Twelve Days Ago Called to View Remains

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The police, who for twelve days have been seeking three months' old Lillian McKenzie, kidnapped in front of a store, today thought they had come to the end of their trail in the waters of the Hudson, where the body of an infant was found floating. Peter McKenzie, however, satisfied them that it was not the body of his daughter and detectives took up the search again.

The body was taken to the police station and the father hastily summoned. He took one look and said it was not Lillian, but the police were not satisfied and sent for Mrs. McKenzie. She was spared the ordeal of viewing the remains when further examination convinced the police that they had come across the body of an abandoned and not a kidnapped child. Although the child was about three months old and had blue eyes, examination showed that it was heavier than the sickly Lillian.

MOTHER WHO SHOT SON PRAYS FOR RECOVERY

CHICAGO, August 28.—Mrs. Rosa Simiz, who yesterday shot her son, Deane, 19 years old, because she said she would rather kill him than have him lead a life of crime, prayed today in her cell for his recovery. At the hospital, the youth was expected to recover from the wound in his neck.

The boy expressed regret that his mother had been arrested and said: "I hold nothing against her. She is my mother."

According to the police, a charge of automobile theft and bond forfeiture is pending against young Simiz.

URGE EGYPTIANS TO HOLD COTTON

LONDON, Aug. 28.—A syndicate composed of the largest Egyptian growers, having already induced the Egyptian government to intervene in the cotton market in the hope of forcing up prices, is now planning, says a despatch to the exchange telegraph from Cairo, to stave the market for the next few weeks.

The syndicate, says the despatch, is preparing to circulate the Egyptian farmers urging them to hold their cotton for the time being. The syndicate alleges that the cotton crop this year will be more than thirty per cent smaller than in 1922 and anticipates that the American crop will be seriously curtailed.

KIRKWOOD REMAINS UNCONSCIOUS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28.—Physicians attending James Kirkwood, motion picture actor, whose skull was fractured last Saturday, when he was thrown from a horse, were still of the opinion early today that no trepanning operation would be necessary. The actor has been unconscious most of the time since the accident. A slight paralysis yesterday, affecting that side of his face, but his physician stated, "It was not of a nature to warrant surgical interference at this time."

PAPYRUS WINS DUKE OF YORK STAKES

YORK, Aug. 28.—(By the Associated Press.) Papyrus, Ben Irish, Derby winner, won the Duke of York stakes here today. Papyrus finished a short head behind Craig Elvir, owned by H. Strucker, but the latter horse was unplaced by the judges on the ground that he did not keep straight on the course. As the result of a heavy placed second and Aga Kahn's Tricky Aun third.

SHUTDOWN ENDS

Heavy Rain Renews Water Supply and Mills Reopen

HOLYOKE, Mass., Aug. 28.—A shutdown for the last 18 hours of most of the large industries of this city, which are dependent upon water power, was ended today as the result of a heavy rain during the night which renewed the supply impounded by the Connecticut river dam and allowed the canals to fill.

U. S. CARTRIDGE SHOP CLOSED TILL TUESDAY

With the exception of the radiator and motor departments, the entire plant of the United States Cartridge company closed last night until next Tuesday morning. The shutdown is not because of a lack of business, but to acquiesce with the wishes of numerous employees who wanted a vacation. It was stated at the office of the company today, that business is rushing and that the firm is having a hard time to keep up with the orders, but the officials felt that the employees were entitled to a vacation and hence the shutdown. It was deemed inadvisable to close the radiator and motor departments. The vacation will be enjoyed by between 500 and 600 employees or about 90 per cent of the force.

BROTHER JOANNES COMING TO LOWELL

Brother Joannes S. M., director of St. Anne's parochial school of Lawrence, has been transferred to St. Joseph's high school, this city, where he will teach English and mathematics with the opening of the school term next week.

On his arrival at Lawrence, from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., six years ago, Brother Joannes took hold of the athletic situation at St. Anne's and developed star teams in five branches of sport, baseball, football, basketball, hockey and track.

WAGE INCREASES TO BE CANCELED

LACONIA, N. H., Aug. 28.—Notices have been posted in the hosiery mills here to the effect that the increases in wages granted to employees on May 25 are to be cancelled beginning Monday, Sept. 3. About 1300 employees are affected. The increase granted in May totalled 12½ per cent. Lack of business was given as the cause.

Wells in Country Drying Up

Last Monday they went to Fall River and New Bedford.

In New Bedford, where the population is about 10,000 more than Lowell, the assessed valuation reaches close to $204,000,000 as against $138,000,000 for Lowell. In Fall River the valuation reaches $188,000,000 with a population about equal to New Bedford. In both cities rents are comparatively higher than in Lowell. Lawrence valuation is about the same as Lowell and the methods used are similar to those now in vogue here.

The Money Smile
Four city officials will wear a broad smile when they sign the payroll in the city treasurer's office at city hall next Friday morning. They are Hugh J. McOskey, chairman; J. Omer Allard, secretary; Thomas H. Braden and Joseph H. Maguire, all members of the election commission and listing board. The occasion will be the receipt of their first pay under their new salary schedule.

For several years past the salary of the election commissioners has been $1200 a year for the chairman and $1000 a year for the other members. With the creation of the listing board by the state legislature the salary of the members was set at $2000 a year, but it was only a month ago that the city council passed an ordinance granting the increase.

The monthly payroll of the city including the salaries of the election commissioners, which is now in the city auditor's office amounts to $21,571.02. Of that amount Chairman McOskey will receive $156.71, of which $10.72 is for six days' work at $1200 a year and 25 days at $2000 a year. The other commissioners will each receive $152.42 for 6 days' work at $1000 a year and 25 days at $2000.

MILLIONS OF LIVES SAVED

Col. Haskell Reports on Activities of American Relief Administration in Russia

Declares Communism in Russia Dead—Country Now on Road to Recovery

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The story of the saving of millions of lives in Russia by American aid will be "told lovingly in Russian households for generations," Col. William N. Haskell, declared in a final report, published today, on the activities of the American relief administration in that country.

The report, submitted to Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce and chairman of the relief administration, summarized the two years of relief work which the gift of $50,000,000 by the American people and congress had made possible and asserted it had won for America a lasting inheritance in good will of the Slav race.

Declaring that communism in Russia is dead and the country is on the road to recovery, Col. Haskell added that the "realization by the Russian people that the strong American system was able to contain the system to save these millions of strangers from death that had engulfed them must have furnished good for thought." "The checking of famine and pestilence," he said, "turned the corner for civilization in Russia" and lifted the Russian people from despair to hope.

THREE LAWYERS KILLED WHEN CAR HIT AUTO

FLINT, Mich., August 28.—Three prominent attorneys were killed and two other members of local law firms were injured late last night when the automobile they occupied was struck by a trolley car at Mount Morris. The dead:

Marshall J. Frisbie, 40; Clay M. Wilber, 35; Clark M. Johnson, 35.

612 GALLONS OF ALCOHOL SEIZED

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Two motor trucks containing 612 gallons of alcohol, valued at over $8000, were seized by the East Boston police today. The drivers, Vincent DeMauro of East Boston and John R. Mercuri of Chelsea, were arrested and charged with the illegal transportation of liquor.

In Saugus the police today captured two alleged rum runners as they were unloading 300 gallons of alcohol from a boat in the Saugus river. They gave their names as Mrs. Augustine of Malden and Andre Penchazales of Boston, of the feet before, but only a day.

WORLD RECORDS BY ARMY AIRMEN

Capt. Smith and Lt. Richter Shatter Speed, Endurance and Distance Marks

Also Succeeded in Taking on Fuel for Their Plane Not Less Than 15 Times

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 28.—(By the Associated Press.) Beyond the statistical achievements of Captain Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. John P. Richter, army aviators, who had broken several world's records for endurance and distance and speed when they landed early last night after cruising above the city continuously for 37 hours and a quarter, a new bar fluttered from the scroll in the sky on which the mechanical romance of aviation is being written.

The new chapter, while less spectacular, has implications perhaps more momentous. For Captain Smith and Lieut. Richter took on in mid-air fuel for their Delfland plane no less than 15 times. They had accomplished all the feat before, but only a day.

Onions, Celery and Lettuce Plentiful

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—There will be a plentiful crop of onions, celery and lettuce, according to a crop survey just completed by the department of agriculture. The late commercial onion crop is placed at 12,643,000 bushels, which is two percent less than the 1922 production but 34 percent larger than that in 1921. About 2,182,000 crates of late commercial celery, practically the same as last years crop, are expected and 5,565,000 crates of late lettuce, compared with 3,603,000 crates in 1922 and 2,666,000 in 1921.

NEW ALL-METAL PLANE

French Officials Complete Series of Strain Resistance Tests on New Model

MARSEILLE, Aug. 28.—French aviation officials have completed a series of strain resistance tests on a new model all-metal plane that mounts six machine guns and two rapid-fire rifles. Sand bags and lead weights totalling 1600 pounds were placed on the wings, while similar weights were applied to other parts to determine the plane's ability to withstand stress at high speed and high altitudes.

The great war machine is equipped with four 250-horse power motors. It is capable of carrying fuel to last seven hours at a speed of 115 miles an hour.

World records were broken for 2,500 to 4,000 kilometers. Total distance flown, 5,200 kilometers, or 3,232 miles at an average speed of 84.5 miles an hour. The record of Kelly and MacReady was 2,541 miles.

The following new world speed records were established:

4,500 kilometers, time 31 hours, 28 minutes, 2 seconds, 88.50 miles an hour.

4,000 kilometers time 25 hours, 4 minutes, 28 seconds, 88.75 miles an hour.

FATHER FOUND TWO-YEAR-OLD BOY VERY SICK

Was Constipated, Thin, No Appetite, Had Swollen Lips, Stomach Pains

A hardy woodsman and enthusiastic fisherman of Maine, has a very interesting record to report. He writes: "As a boy, thirty-seven years ago, I began to take Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. Once after six months hauling logs, I came out of the woods and found my two-year-old boy very sick. He was thin, had no appetite, had swollen lips, pains in stomach, was suffering from constipation for months.

"I had not been in the house an hour when an elderly lady—a good neighbor came in and told my wife to get a bottle of Dr. True's Elixir, saying she had seen numbers of similar cases which it had relieved.

"My boy was given a half-dozen doses of Dr. True's Elixir, when he passed a lot of worms and right away began to show improvement; he began soon to eat with a relish, play around and look healthy. He did not have to take a full bottle, and in later years whenever he got off his feed, a few doses would straighten him out quick.

"When I get constipated, a couple of teaspoons of Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, fixes me O.K.

"My son is grown up now and has a family of six children, and he has practically raised his family on Dr. True's Elixir. The children go out and get hold of something not good for them. It's hard to watch all the children, and so when they eat something they shouldn't and get sick, Dr. True's Elixir is given and the family is put in good shape again.

"I have read in the papers you have to take a half a dozen bottles of some remedies, but you don't have to do this with Dr. True's Elixir. Simply a few doses and then quick relief. The three generations of my family have been kept healthy by using it."

Symptoms of worms, constipation, offensive breath, swollen upper lip, dented stomach, occasional pains in the bowels, pale face, eyes heavy and dull, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, red points on the tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

Nearly every child and grown-up needs a laxative some time. The food parents safeguard the health of their children, as well as their own, by keeping their bowels in condition. The herbs used in Dr. True's Elixir are imported and of strictly pure quality. No harmful drugs. Keep the bowels regular by using Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. 46c-60c-$1.20.-Adv.

Pres. Coolidge Replies to Letter Sent by Head of Southern Publishers

Undivided Allegiance to Constitution and Obedience to Law Leading Factors

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 28.—Undivided allegiance to the constitution and unhesitating obedience to legislative action were urged upon the press of the nation by President Coolidge in a letter to A. G. Newmeyer, president of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' association, made public here yesterday. The president's letter was in reply to one written by Mr. Newmeyer, who asked the executive to send him a terse, exclusive message for the southern publishers, broadly answering the question as to how the newspapers can best serve the federal government at this time as he was personally anxious to have the membership of the association co-operate with the administration in every manner consistent with their individual policies.

The letter to Mr. Newmeyer, who also is an official of the New Orleans Item follows: "My dear Mr. Newmeyer: Your very kind message and the general assurances which it contains, of support on the part of the newspapers of your association, has been received. Every newspaper can be very helpful in its support of the government, whether it be state or national. Fundamentally this means always making the authority of the law supreme. It means undivided allegiance to the constitution and unhesitating obedience to legislative action made in accordance with its provisions.

"Constructive criticism is always helpful. It keeps institutions from becoming fossilized and falling into decay. But constructive criticism does not accomplish its purpose merely by pointing out what is evil. It must not fail to direct attention, with more emphasis, to what is good. Our institutions, our social organization, our economic conditions are all of a quality and quantity which are worthy of our admiration. I believe that it will be helpful to public sentiment if these principles can be reiterated from time to time, joined with a reverence for religion and an aspiration for better things.

"Very truly yours,
"CALVIN COOLIDGE."

STEVENS TO COACH HARVARD CREW

AMBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 28.—Subject to the formal approval of the Harvard athletic committee, Edward A. Stevens of Portland, Oregon, will coach the Harvard varsity crew next year. This was announced yesterday in a joint statement by John Richardson, chairman of the Harvard advisory rowing committee, and R. M. Henry, captain of the varsity crew. Stevens will be assisted by Samuel Shaw, also of Portland, Oregon.

Hammond Favors Using It in Hard Coal Crisis

BY HARRY B. HUNT, N.E.A. Service Writer. WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The time has come for the government to use the "big stick" on the coal industry, in the opinion of John Hays Hammond, chairman of the United States Coal commission, and other members of that body who have been laboring to prevent a walkout of anthracite miners Sept. 1.

Executive action, following emergency authorization by congress, is suggested by Hammond and approved by other members of the commission, by which the government, in a situation such as exists today in the operation of the mines and the transportation, distribution and marketing of the coal.

"The time has certainly come to establish control in the anthracite industry," says Hammond.

"Coal is quite as much a public necessity as gas, street railway service, or other services or commodities that have been brought under public regulation.

Respect Public Interest

"The guiding principles in coal production as in these other enterprises must no longer be maximum profit to the owners, but maximum service to the public.

"What is clear in the present situation is that the public interest in the operation of the mines must be respected and served, and that this requirement places limitations on the rights of owners of coal lands, coal operators, mine workers, carriers and dealers alike.

"The president of the United States should be authorized by congress to declare that a national emergency exists whenever through the failure of operators and miners in the anthracite industry to agree upon terms of employment or for any other reason there is a suspension of mining operations, seriously interrupting the normal supply of anthracite fuel, and to take over the operation of the mines and the transportation, distribution and marketing of the product, with full power to determine the prices to be paid to mine workers, the prices at which the coal shall be sold and, subject to court review, the compensation to be paid to land and mine owners."

Special Session Doubtful

Whether this recommendation will result in the calling of a special session of congress by President Coolidge, to ask for a grant of the specific powers outlined, or whether Coolidge will find some means of accomplishing the same result by different means, now seems uncertain. The need for prompt, vigorous action makes some alternative, if any such can be found,

ALLEGED SWINDLER OF $103,000 CAUGHT

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—James Collins, known as "the square-faced kid," alleged to be an internationally-known confidence man, yesterday was arrested as a fugitive from justice from New Jersey, and was held in $50,000 bail.

Collins, who is 38, has been sought for three years on a charge of operating a two-horse syndicate at Long Branch, N. J., through which he reaped three victims of $103,000.

Collins and three confederates are alleged to have represented in literature sent through the mail that they were in possession of confidential information about the outcome of races. George C. Ambridge of New Kensington, Pa., invested $22,000 and lost. A Portchester, N. Y., man is said to have been duped out of $20,000, and a third man, a resident of New Jersey, lost $75,000.

Collins was arrested in October last for having defrauded Martin Gibbons, Jersey City stock broker, of $42,000 and jumped $17,500 bail.

FALL RIVER WOMAN PAYS $17,300 FOR MILL

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Elsie L. French of Fall River, Mass., yesterday acquired the mill property of the Quaker Spinning company on Child street, Warren, whose bid was $17,300, the highest made to the receiver. Mrs. French may become a manufacturer, it was stated after the sale.

There is Danger in Crowded Cars - Lifebuoy Combats It

Mother is the Health Doctor

Mothers have made Health Soap their chief assistant in the fight against disease.

Lifebuoy enters new homes every day—and brings a new safety, a new kind of cleanliness, a new pleasure in keeping the skin immaculate.

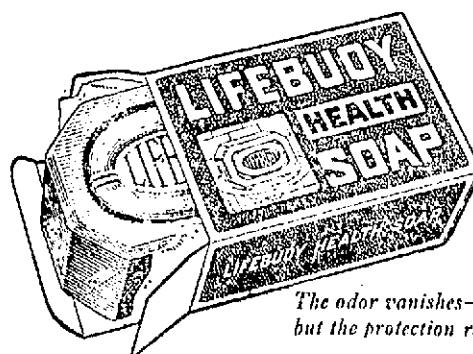

THE germ danger is greatest in crowds. Germs are deposited by other hands on everything you touch.

That is one reason why children so often become ill after a holiday excursion. The moist little hands touch everything and are too apt to convey germs to mouth or nose.

Yet precaution is so easy. Take along a cake of Lifebuoy Health Soap. Purify hands and face at frequent intervals. Get rid of these dangerous disease germs before they have a chance to get into the system.

Germs are everywhere. You may pick up millions of them in any of the following places:

Street Cars, Subways, Railroad Cars, Ferry Boats, Sick Rooms, Taxicabs, School Rooms, Moving Picture Houses, Shopping Centres, Theatres, Crowded Streets, Stuffy Offices, Lodge Rooms, Crowded Workrooms, Public Meetings, Locker Rooms, Play Grounds, Public Wash Rooms and many others.

Purify Your Hands and Face! Protect Your Health!

Tiny germs are attracted to the naturally oily surface of your skin in much the same manner that flies are attracted to sticky fly-paper. They imbed themselves, they multiply and they gain entrance to the body and the blood stream at the first opportunity.

Millions of germs collect upon a scratch, a bruise, a cut; and in many cases infection sets in almost immediately.

Keep these germs off your skin with Lifebuoy Health Soap. That is the surest, safest, easiest way to combat them. Lifebuoy Health Soap not only protects—it is one of the most soothing soaps ever perfected—and wonderfully beneficial to the skin.

Keeps Skin Soft and Radiant

Its generous lather of the pure oils of palm fruit and coconut carries deep down into every pore a wonderful health ingredient which wakes up your skin and keeps it smooth, sweet and beautiful. For family health and for fresh, wholesome, healthy skins keep Lifebuoy wherever there is running water. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Saratoga Lake, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Basking in the sunshine on the steps of Luther's hotel is a brown-faced, middle-aged, slant-eyed, balding, "far-away" look while he idly strums a ukulele.
Pancho Villa is his name. He's the sensational little Filipino, who in the short space of a little over a year, came to this country and won and lost the bantamweight title, and today holds the world's title of flyweight champion, by virtue of his defeat of the veteran Jimmy Wilde.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES AT READVILLE

READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 28.—The Mass. 208 trot for a purse of $10,000 and two colts races, the American horse breeder society for two year old and three year old trotters, are on the second day of the program of the grand circuit meeting here today. An added feature, if conditions permit, will be the effort of Peter Manning, trotting against time, to lower the track record of 1:54, postponed yesterday owing to show which left the going heavy. The Nonpareil 2:07 pace and a 2:00 trot complete the program.

Yesterday's event was won by "Florida are among the entries in the Massachusetts trot. The Senator, Buta Druein and Jane Rogers will start in the three year old futurity. Forecasted weather last night and early today was expected to result in a slow track again.

Billy Evans Says

In baseball the breaks of the game often are entirely contrary to the dope. That is the element of uncertainty that makes the national pastime such a great sport.
It was my good fortune to open the season at the new Yankee stadium in New York. The day prior to the opening game I went out in the park to familiarize myself with the conditions. It was apparent at a glance that many fresh home runs would result on the new grounds because of the low wall in front of the left field bleachers and a peculiar trick pocket in right field.
During the ground rules over with Manager Huggins I called attention to the fact that the left field wall was so low that a ball could be hit over the wall and into the right field pocket for a home run. It nearly cost the Yankees the ball game.
Manager Huggins admitted the break possibility in discussing the situation, but took the sportsman's view when he stated that it was all even, that the Yankees had the same chance as the visitors to profit from the advantage of the new grounds.
If the Giants and the Yankees should again meet in the world series, break home runs may play a prominent part in the result of the event. Both parks are so arranged that often ordinary fly balls that should be easy outs drop into the stands for home runs. The contemplated changes at the Yankee field will not only greatly improve the playing territory, but make it better for the spectators to see the play from the stands like those at the Yankee park.

And I can't go back, for there I can't make the money that I get in this country.
"We Filipinos are not rich like the Americans, and the fighter there gets very small purses."
"I don't believe that I ever will return to Manila. When I am through fighting I will open a little store, and sell the products of my country."
"I will bring my wife here, after her parents are gone, and then we will be happy together."
The strumming of the ukulele went on.

The girls, young and old, who flock about the little fighter, who try to flirt with him, and dance with him, who try to entice him into their big cars for a ride, get only a slow smile and a soft spoken refusal for their pains.
Pancho's heart is far away across the Pacific.

STAGE SET FOR BIG FAIR

Three-Day Fair at Golden Cove Park Will Open Tomorrow

Efforts to secure "Liddle Boy" for the household pet of the late President Harding, as a special feature exhibit of the dog show at Golden Cove park Saturday afternoon are being made by the committee in charge of this feature of the big three-day fair which opens tomorrow noon.
As it is desired to have a large representation in the show entries will be received up to 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon when the judging will begin. I. E. Worthington, Leon Mullin and Joseph Foley have charge of this feature of the fair. They have ordered 375 prize ribbons for distribution.

Four members of the state constabulary will be detailed to attend the fair and give exhibitions of trick and fancy horseback riding. The state policemen are daring and competent equestrians who are certain to provide many thrills.

I. E. Worthington, second vice president of the Lowell Park and Club, presided over a committee meeting in the Venable building last night at which all plans were completed.

A parade from Cabot street to the scene of the fair, bicycle racing and judging of agricultural exhibits will take up all of tomorrow afternoon as the big three-day affair gets underway. Horse racing will be the king sport Friday afternoon, while Saturday afternoon horse and dog will vie for the attention of the spectators.
With eighty horses entered for the various events competition in every class will be taken and some spirited

Fountain of Youth Found at Last In Town Where No One Grows Old

By NEA Service.
MORAVIA, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Found: the fountain of youth. It is right here in this small upstate town. But the passerby who seeks it in a hurry can't find it; for it doesn't spring from the waters of the public park, nor the brooks off the main road. Yet it is everywhere.

The natives of Moravia, 145 men and women have passed the three-score years and ten mark. And many have passed it so long ago, that they speak of their seventieth birthdays in the time when they were young.

"When Ponce de Leon came to America to search for the fountain of youth," they say, "he had the right idea but the wrong place. He went to Florida; he should have come to Moravia county. We know it. And they have known for a long, long time. For 58 of the natives have passed their eightieth birthdays, and many of them have but a year or two to become nonagenarians. They look upon those who are but 70 as children.

The combined ages of these men and women amount to 12,321 years. There is almost no sickness among these venerable men and women. Some of the older ones can hear well and a few of them use glasses when they read. But they have all retained their interest in affairs of the world, their joy in living. All but a very few are still actively mingling with their acquaintances about town.

Miss Julia Everson, 90, is one of the oldest and most loved women in the town. Many years ago she was a "school marm." Now she says she's "just an old maid."

"A picture?" she said. "Well, maybe, if you will wait until I dress up a bit."

Then there is Charles W. Bridgen, an 85-year-old blacksmith. He daily rides his bicycle the half mile that lies between his home and his shop. Every night he rides it home again. "We young fellows have to do it," he says. "The 'young ones' is the county judge. Mr. Day is practicing something to keep in shape," he said, hopping on his wheel.

Hon. S. Edwin Day, 84, who for 12 consecutive years held the office of law now and is president of the Moravia National bank.

"You'll tell me the same story that you'll tell from all the old natives—if you want to stay young, come to Moravia."

POLICE GUARD SLAYER MOSCOW SOVIET SEES OF "KID DROPPER" NEW WORLD WAR

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The motley crowd which swarmed in and about Old Essex Market today for a glimpse of Louis Cohen, youthful slayer of the deceased gang leader, "Kid Dropper," and Louis' fellow-convicts, held on charges of setting in motion a policy of terror and assassination, in the slaying of another affair like yesterday's when the Dropper was slain while leaving the court in police custody and under heavy guard, whisked their prisoners to another court, where all three were held with out bail for further examination. A heavy police guard was maintained at Essex market court and the Home court, in which the three were arraigned.

STRIKE LEADERS ARE ACCUSED

Those Responsible for Unauthorized Brockton Strike Charged With Treason

Entire Blame to Be Placed on Shoulders of Five Officials of B. & S. W. U.

BROCKTON, Mass., August 28.—Charges alleging treason to the best and shoe workers union have been preferred by President Collins Lovely of the B. and S. W. U. against Joseph Lacouture, former business agent of Lesters Local 146, Dennis E. McCarthy, business agent of the dressers and packers local and Richard C. Clifford, former business agent of the edgemakers union.

In addition, Mrs. Nellie McMan, called the "grandmother" of the strike that paralyzed the local shoe industry for many weeks the past summer and Edward A. Lyons, member of the lasters local, are included in the list of five divulged today.

It is believed that the entire blame for the continuance and start of the strike will be placed on the shoulders of these five by B. and S. W. U. officials.

The charges specifically accuse the five persons named of an attempt to destroy the union, by leading the workers of Brockton and Whitman, Abington and Bridgewater as well as those of Brockton to revolt against certain decisions of the state board of arbitration.

A date for the hearing will be set by the general officers of the shoe union.

Fines of $10 each have been levied on the rank and file members of the union who failed to return to work after being notified to do so, by both union officials and manufacturers, on June 18.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, August 28.—Stock prices made further recovery at the opening of today's stock market but the initial gains, as a rule, were small. Dupont opened 1 1/4 higher and American Agricultural Chemical preferred J. Oils were active and firm. Pool operations were believed to be largely responsible for the buying movement which again embraced a wide variety of shares. It was again in demand, Pittsburgh and West Virginia, Texas and Pacific and Great Northern preferred each advancing a point. Steels, equipments, chemicals, copper and sugar also showed moderate strength. Foreign exchanges opened irregular. French francs dropping five points to 5.69 cents and German marks sinking to 12 cents a million, or one cent above the extreme low.

Exceptional movements in a number of industrials in which pools are believed to be operating featured the morning session. Chemical shares led the advance, the annual report of the American Agricultural Company, published today, which showed net profits of $201,400 as against a deficit of $1,124,000 last year, being construed by some as an indication that the industry had definitely turned for the better. Virginia Carolina Chemical preferred spurted 9 points to 39, and then dropped back to 35 on profit taking. American Cotton Oil Preferred climbed 1 1/2 and other chemicals and fertilizers gained 2 to 3 points. Ralls benefited by the latest car loadings report, which showed the highest August loadings in history. Oils turned sluggish with the low-oil prices yielding the most volatile prices. Woolworth dropped nearly 7 points in reflection of official denial of reports that extra stock dividends were contemplated this year. Call money opened at 5 1/2 per cent. Several of the active shares temporarily fell back a point or so, including Baldwin, Dupont, Mack Truck and Bradwoods and Refiners, but they stiffened again later when the buying movement assumed larger scope.

Shipments of cotton continued strong and Davidson Chemicals, especially its recent rise, touching 42 1/2. United Fruit advanced five points, National Lead 1 1/2, Consolidated Products 1, International Agricultural Preferred 3 1/2 and New Orleans, Texas and Mexico 3 points.

The closing was strong. An upward movement of prices continued in the late dealing with new leaders brought forward as the old favorites showed signs of halting.

WANT COAL NOT HARD COAL NOT RESOLUTIONS A NECESSITY

N. H. Governor and Fuel Administration Disappointed at N. Y. Coal Conference

Would Have Stayed at Home Had He Known What Was to Happen, Says Governor

CONCORD, N. H., August 28.—John W. Sturges, New Hampshire fuel administrator and Governor Fred H. Brown are back from the New York coal conference frankly disappointed in its result.

In a formal statement given out today, Mr. Sturges said that he expected some concrete plan to be recommended and adopted whereby a fuel famine would be prevented.

"If I had known what was to happen I would have stayed at home," he commented as he released the formal statement which was as follows:

"The governors who were present were Governor Brown of New Hampshire, Governor Rodd of Vermont, Governor Flynn of Rhode Island and Governor Cox of Massachusetts.

"After Ainey's resolution was objected to (in fuel meeting), it was suggested that the governors and governors' delegates hold a little conference. A recess was taken for this purpose.

"At this conference Governor Brown of New Hampshire said: 'To us with resolutions, show me how we are to get coal and then get busy.'—It's coal the people want in our state and not resolutions."

"As the result of the above statement by Governor Brown, the resolution agreed upon and later presented by Governor Cox of Massachusetts, putting it up to the federal fuel administration, was adopted."

Tale of an Angora Cat

CLERK TRULL was in a quandary, but the claim and denial of motherhood, paved the way for a solution of the tangle. Dr. Eaton of the Humane society was called in as an expert, and after due deliberation and examination he had to conclude in accordance with the claim of Mrs. Gravel.

But that didn't satisfy Mrs. Bernabe, so she engaged counsel and decided to have her own expert called in. Apparently her expert, if any were called, must have agreed with the findings of the Humane society. Last night the night called when Mrs. Bernabe surrendered the cat to Mrs. Gravel.

And now comes the suggestion that Mrs. Bernabe was a victim of mistaken identity. But Kitty looked so very much like her pet that it didn't appear from home last October, after she had it two years, and brought back such pleasant memories that she could not hold back the tears that fell and glistened in Kitty's eyes for the other morning in Clerk Trull's office.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—A joint venture seeking interstate commerce commission approval for the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company to consolidate with the Automatic Telephone & Telegraph Company of New Bedford, Mass., was filed with the commission today by the two telephone companies.

The Automatic Telephone & Telegraph Company has 294 of which are also subscribers of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company. The New England company agrees to take over the property of the Automatic company for $25,000.

DELTA TAU DELTA FRATERNITY

CHAMPLAIN, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Members of the Delta Tau Delta Greek letter fraternity assembled here today for the forty-seventh annual of the society. The sessions will continue until Saturday.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and A. Bruce Blecksl, New York, president of the fraternity are scheduled speakers.

At an informal meeting yesterday delegates discussed plans, which it is said, completely revise the constitution of the fraternity. These plans will be submitted to the delegates tomorrow.

PRINCESS ANASTASIA IS AT DEATH'S DOOR

LONDON, Aug. 28. (By the A. P.)—Princess Anastasia of Greece, formerly Mrs. Wm. E. Leach, who has been suffering for some time from an organic intestinal affection, was sinking rapidly this afternoon and her doctors stated that virtually all hope had been abandoned. The last sacraments were administered by a priest of the Russian Orthodox church.

Late this afternoon the Princess' breathing became more labored and her pulse became more feeble. Her relatives gathered to bid her farewell, but she did not recognize any of them. Express Mother Alexandra called to express the sympathy of the British Royal Family.

Through the windows of the house in St. James place, Prince Christopher, husband of the dying woman, could be seen weeping and burying his face in his hands.

CHARGES AGAINST RED CROSS

PAID, August 28. Charges made at the Geneva congress of the International Red Cross that American Red Cross seeks by its financial weight to dominate Red Cross work throughout the world have caused a breach which the American delegates say can not be healed until the charges are withdrawn.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED

HOUSTON, Texas, Aug. 28.—More than a dozen persons were named today in the first indictment returned by the federal grand jury here investigating the alleged misuse of the mails. Bonds set by Judge J. O. Hutcheson, Jr., ranged from $200 to $10,000. Names of those indicted were not made public.

MILL EMPLOYE INJURED

Armand Bergeron of 219 West Sixth street, an employee of the Lawrence Manufacturing Co., was slightly injured this afternoon when he was caught between a freight elevator and the framework of the shaft. He was removed to the Lowell Corporation hospital where it was stated that his injuries consisted of lacerations to his left forearm.

Trail of Murderer Again Hits Lowell

would not say, but the presumption was left that this was his plan.

"We've been plugging hard on this case for several weeks now," said the state officer, "and I don't want to spoil anything by giving out any information we have at this time. Everything will develop as a result of this case upon which you are now working," he was asked.

"That I cannot say," he replied.

The officers are working on the theory that a bullet from either the gun of Officer Bowler or Officer John MacDonald, who was with Bowler, hit one of the three men in a green touring car from which the shots were fired that killed Bowler as MacDonald claims. Because of this theory they are running down the class in reference to the meeting between the Lowell doctor and the three men within he is supposed to have met.

It is understood also, although the authorities have not admitted it, that the Lowell doctor identified one of the three men in the car.

CONFERENCE WITH BANKS

Yesterday afternoon Attorney Daniel J. Donahue held another conference with Barney Banks, who is being held on a formal charge of the murder in the Lawrence jail. Attorney Donahue went over certain details with the state official in the hearing of Banks' case in the Lawrence district court Friday morning.

Reports from the two attorneys who have examined Banks as to his sanity, Dr. Herbert M. Larabee of Derbybury to the defense and Dr. Victor B. Thompson of the district attorney's office, will be submitted to the court Friday. Just what these reports will be is not known, but Attorney Donahue intimates that the defense of Banks will not be insanity.
